DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What stood out to you from this weekend's message?
2. What's something someone has said about you that has stuck with you to this day?
3. Why is there so much power in what's proclaimed over people?
4. Read Revelation 12:10-12. What stands out to you about the way "the accuser" is described?
5. Read Hebrews 4:14-16. How do we "approach God's throne of grace with confidence," and why is that important when accusations come?
6. As we continue to discuss the enemy's playbook (and more generally spiritual warfare): what does it look like to take spiritual warfare seriously without giving it too much or too little attention?
7. How do you recognize the difference between the enemy's accusations and God's conviction?
8. Can you share a time when accusations shifted your focus from your activity (what you do) to your identity (who you are)?
9. What does it practically look like to claim Christ as our main foundation for our identity?

ACTION STEP

Contemplate the idea of God's grace.
