Discussion Guide

(for use individually, as a family or in your small group)

Begin by reading John 2:13-22. Discuss any insights or observations you have from this week's message or from the scripture passages shared? Did anything stand out to you?

1. What did Jesus see as a mockery of the spirit of true worship that ignited His fury? How was it a mockery? How do our lives lack in authentic reverence of God through selfish gain?
2. What does our selfishness and a lack of proper reverence for God say to a world full of unbelieving people? In what ways have you been desensitized from real worship and obedience?
3. Read Jeremiah 7:1-11. What if Christ came to the temple of our lives? What would He see worshipped there? What would He do?
4. Read Acts 17:29-31. What might it look like in our lives for us to challenge the authority and power Christ has over our sin?
5. Read 2 Corinthians 6:14-16. Christ is now the true center of our worship and He lives in us. What should it look like for us to be the temple where God resides? What "partnerships" need to end?

Discuss any further insights together and close in prayer.
