Discussion Guide

(for use individually, as a family or in your small group)

Begin by reading Matthew 7:7-11 and Galatians 4:4-9. Discuss any insights or observations you have from this week's message or from the scripture passages shared? Did anything stand out to you?

1. What makes a gift receivable? Are there gifts that you really look forward to and others that you don't? What's the difference?
2. Read John 4:10. How is Jesus described as the gift from God in this passage? Is He described as appealing or not? Why?
3. Read Ephesians 2:8-9 and John 1:10-17. If God's gift is so amazing, why does it seem so many reject him? How or when have you rejected the gift of God?
4. Do you live more with an eternal perspective or a do you tend to care more about what is happening now and how it affects you? Explain.
5. How is the Holy Spirit a gift for you? How does the Holy Spirit in us become a gift to others? How well do you allow God's spirit to live in and work through you? What might improve?

Discuss any further insights together and close in prayer.
