Discussion Guide

(for use individually, as a family or in your small group)

Begin by reading 1 Peter 3:1-12. Discuss any insights or observations you have from this week's message or from the scripture passages shared. Did anything stand out to you?

- It was mentioned that the default nature of humanity was for women to desire to control their husbands and for men to dominate their wives. How have you seen this struggle play out?
- Read 1 Peter 3:1-6. What is produced in a woman's life who has placed her hope fully in God? What is the goal of this fruit?
- Read Ephesians 5:25-30. In what way or by what pattern are men called to honor their wives? Does this seem like a position of domination or something else? Explain...
- How might each role of the spouse be made easier when one humbly honors another the way God has designed? Explain..
- Read 1 Peter 3:8-12. What pattern of behavior and relationship is everybody who hopes in God called to? What do you find most difficult about this pattern of submission to one another?

Discuss any further insights together and close in prayer.
