Discussion Guide

(for use individually, as a family or in your small group)

Begin by reading Matthew 4:12-17. Discuss any insights or observations you have from this week's message or from the scripture passages shared. Did anything stand out to you?

- Read John 10:17-18. It often seemed like Jesus was trying to avoid or escape danger or even death. What does this passage reveal about the Lord's control over His own fate? Why is this important? How does it apply to the way He pursues us?
- Read Isaiah 8:21-22 and 9:1-2. Why does it seem that the place the Lord goes is to the dejected and to the hungry? Why is His presence and message a dawning light to them? How has He been a dawning light to you? Explain...
- Read John 10:1-10. What is the message that Jesus is proclaiming here? Why is every other path or idol inferior to the Lord Jesus? What, then, does repentance look like?

Discuss any further insights together and close in prayer.
