Discussion Guide

(for use individually, as a family, or in your small group)

Begin with prayer then read Matthew 5:17-26. Discuss any insights or observations you have from this week's message or from the scripture passages shared. Did anything stand out to you?

- Read Luke 16:14-15. In what ways do you think religious people are revolting to God? What is highly admired by men? In what ways do you seek to justify yourself before people? What is pleasing to God?
- Read Luke 18:9-14. What posture is necessary for real righteousness to be given? How have you approached God with both attitudes before? What was the reason? What was the result?
- Is there anyone you have not pursued that you currently hold a grudge against or who may hold a grudge against you? What may be the next step in living in peace and in reconciliation?

Discuss any further insights together and close in prayer.
