Adult Sunday School Classes - All are Welcome

Fidelis and Friends (Zoom - Thursday evenings 7:00 pm)

Led by Jerry Coker — this class currently has members ages from 50's and up, but all ages are welcomed. They enjoy discussion-oriented lessons. They have used theologians like Adam Hamilton or John Ortberg to focus on spiritual growth and social justice issues. They value diversity of thoughts and opinions. They enjoy social outings and dinners together. This group is very active in all parts of the church. Many of the members have Sunday morning commitments so the "motto" is "come late, leave early, you're never too late for the Fidelis class".

The Village (Zoom - Sunday mornings at 9:00 am)

Led by class members and guest leaders. The Village class includes couples and parents of pre-school and school age children. The class gathers to discuss topics covering parenting, family, Bible study, and spiritual growth. These committed "Villagers" are caregivers for one another and enjoy fellowship activities inside and outside the church facilities. Contact Megan Rahn or Susan Cortez.

Heritage (Zoom TBD)

Led by class members and guest leaders, the Heritage Class has a variety of ages of adults including many empty-nesters, some now caring for aging parents. This class is primarily discussion-based Bible study. They enjoy many opinions, encouragement, mutual support, and a care and respect for tradition and traditional Christian beliefs.
