

Maymester 2021 Ten Words to Live By by Jen Wilkin

Debbie Stuart

Why were The Ten Commandments written?

1. Instructs us how to live a life of practical holiness
2. Teaches us how to remain faithful to the Lord and how to treat others
3. Guidelines for a purposeful and powerful life and future

Commandment #1 – Do not worship any other gods.

- New order, highest priority, focus of attention/affection

Commandment # 2 – Do not make idols.

- Do not establish anything that craves your attention.
- Do not love it excessively or make it a priority in your life.

Ex. 20:5-6 You shall not bow down to them or serve them, for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and the fourth generation of those who hate me, but showing steadfast love to thousands (1,000 generations) of those who love me and keep my commandments.

Visiting: to visit upon, to pass in review, (not inhabiting)

Iniquity: consequence of, perversity, mischief, calamity, misery

Those who hate me: to hate, an enemy of

Showing: fashion, accomplish, prepare, appoint, ordain, bring about, advance, produce, press and squeeze

Breaking Generational Curses:

“The cycle of sin and suffering can be broken through repentance.” (ESV Study Bible) Repent and Return.
