From the Pastor...

Acts 23:11 says, "The following night, the Lord stood by him and said, 'Have courage! For as you have testified about Me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify in Rome.'"

At this point, Paul was facing trouble and uncertainty around every corner. He was being transported from one prison to another. More than forty men had taken an oath to kill Paul. I'm sure there were many moments that Paul considered running away and hiding. Yet in the midst of all this opposition, the Lord Himself told Paul to remain faithful in sharing the gospel.

I pray that we would have enough gospel boldness that the devil would be threatened by our witness. I pray that we would have enough gospel urgency to share the gospel no matter the circumstances around us. I pray that our lives and priorities would reflect that the gospel is superior over all things.

I hope to see you this Sunday. Have a blessed week!

In Christ,
Jason

Servant Leaders Needed

We really need servant leaders in our Preschool and Children's Ministries during all of our gathering times. If you are interested in serving on Sunday mornings for Sunday School or Children's Church, Sunday nights for Truth Trackers, or Wednesday nights for Kids Connect, please let us know, and we will get you connected so you can show and share the love of Christ with our children.
