BENJAMIN RANDALL DAY

Sunday, November 22, 1992 is Benjamin Randall Day. This is the day that every Free Will Baptist church is asked to receive a special offering for National Home Missions (General Fund). It would be a great example to the other states if every church in Tennessee would participate!

Individuals giving $25.00 or more, and pastors whose churches receive a special offering for the Home Missions General Fund on November 22 will receive a copy of the oldest historical document on Free Will Baptists: Benjamin Randall's Journal.

To help your church have a successful Benjamin Randall Day and a generous offering, order free Home Missions material such as Randall Video, Bulletin Inserts, Offering Envelopes, Bulletin Board Posters, Mission Maps, etc., from Home Missions, P.O. Box 5002, Antioch, TN 37011-5002.

REACH OUT '92

World Missions and Evangelism Conference will be at Free Will Baptist Bible College, October 6-9. There will be 24 workshops and 10 plenary sessions.

Speakers include Dr. Paul Smith, Don Richardson, Roy Thomas, Carlisle Hanna, and Eugene Waddell.

ATTENTION: TENNESSEE CHURCHES

As you consider your church budget for the new year, please make plans to give at least $5.00 per member for the new national offices building. Of the 209 churches in Tennessee, only 8 have given. One association, Liberty, gave $1,000. Limestone FWB Church gave $2,000. Tennessee's goal is $100,000. The total given so far is $18,975.
