3 | DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

What does it mean to “be known”? Why do you believe, as humans, it is so essential for us to be known (see Gen. 1:27; 1 Cor. 8:3 & Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs)?

Do you feel as if you are truly “known” by people? Why or why not? If yes, what did it take?

Scott shared, “The problem is when there is a gap or discrepancy between what I want to be known for and what I really am.” What was he talking about? Do you see that play out in your own life? If so, how? Why is it such a big deal?

Why do you believe that far too often, the church becomes a place where we feel the need to “fake it” the most? What do we lose when the church is reduced to this reality?

Ask yourself, “Am I investing in relationships where I am fully known and loved?” What obstacles, challenges, or fears do you have about those types of relationships?

“We all want to be known FOR something, but what we [really] need is to be known IN community.”

What stands out to you the most in Acts 2:42-47 as it relates to the community? Do you believe the type of community described in Acts 2 is a “pipe dream”? Why or why not?

What would it take for The Bridge to be known as a community living out the principles described in Acts 2?
