

1/REVIEW

What are the first two culture values of The Bridge? How are they significant to our mission and vision?

2/INTRODUCTION

When you hear the third value, Comfortably Uncomfortable, how does it make you feel? Why?

3/REFLECTION

Read Mark 6:31-44

What does this passage tell you about God?

What does this passage tell you about people?

5/APPLICATION

“Are you willing to sacrifice your personal preferences for the sake of someone else?”

Consider this question in light of Philippians 2:6-8. What is a preference God is leading you to give up?

4/DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Reread Matthew 28:19-20 in light of the Bridges mission statement: “...to lead people into a growing relationship with Jesus Christ.”

What does it mean to ‘make disciples’?

How do we lead people (personally and organizationally) into a growing relationship with Jesus?

Why is this critical to our vision to build irresistible bridges and what does this value (Comfortably Uncomfortable) have to do with it?

“All things are difficult before they are easy.”

- Thomas Fuller -

How do you feel about change and the tension it can create? Why do we, so often, resist change? Why is our response so critical?

Scott shared that, as we see in this account in Mark, Jesus is always teaching his disciples (ref. Mark 6:38). What do you think they learned through this experience?

What is one thing that God is teaching you right now?

Read Luke 9:23.

What does this verse tell us about being comfortably uncomfortable? What could change if we were willing to step into this place of discomfort? What role does community play in empowering us to do so?
