

Ice Breaker: What's one topic you could do a 10-minute speech on without any preparation?

Read: Exodus 3 & 4, Daniel 3:8-26

Discussion Questions:

- Opening Thoughts
  - How do you typically feel when faith and politics are discussed together?
  - Why do you think conversations about politics can be challenging in the church?
  - [Big Question of the Sermon] How Should Christians (the Church) engage in politics?
- Let God Speak to You in Politics (Exodus 3:1–6)
  - What stands out to you about Moses' encounter with God at the burning bush?
  - Before God gives Moses a mission, He first reveals His presence. Why is that significant?
  - What might it look like for believers to approach politics with humility and a willingness to learn from God?
- Let God Reveal an Agenda in Politics (Exodus 3:7-15)
  - What does God say He has seen, heard, and known about His people?
  - What does this passage reveal about God's priorities?
  - How is God's agenda different from the agendas we often see in politics, and why is it important to distinguish His kingdom agenda from the agenda of any political party?
  - Where do you see opportunities for the church to participate in God's concern for people who are hurting?
  - How can believers champion truth, justice, and compassion without becoming politically divisive?
- Let God Shape You in Politics (Exodus 4:1–7)
  - What fears or objections does Moses raise, and how does God respond?
  - Why do you think God focuses on shaping Moses before sending him?
  - Which Christlike qualities are most needed in today's political climate (humility, courage, patience, compassion, self-control, etc.)?
  - How can followers of Jesus disagree politically while still demonstrating love and unity?
- Closing Thoughts (Daniel 3:8-26)
  - Why did Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego refuse to obey the king's command?
  - What does this story teach us about the limits of political authority?
  - How does God's presence with the three men in the fire encourage you today?
  - What is one thing God has shown you through this discussion?
  - What is one practical way you can engage politics more faithfully as a follower of Jesus moving forward?

Share prayer requests and close in prayer.

Icebreakers, Groups Support, FAQ