

The Birth

God will supply your necessary needs and provide support.

The path is not always clear.

To be faithful and take responsibility is difficult at times.

Reflection: Where life delivers you a difficult situation, how do you tend to respond to it?

Challenge: For every challenge you come across this week, think of one blessing God has given you, and thank God for it.