

El Roi: The God Who Sees Me

The Names of God part II series

by Chris Famisaran

Genesis 16:1-16, 20:8-21

Fear clouds our judgment.

Hagar is the first to call God by name: “The One who sees me”.

You are not invisible.

God’s love and support have no limits.

Hagar and Ishmael’s story is a precursor to Mount Moriah.

Reflection: Where have you lacked faith and put limits on God’s ability to care for and guide you?

Challenge: Pray daily and trust that the Lord will supply your needs, and love the outsiders.
