

GROUPS ARE FOR FAMILIES, TOO!

Life as a parent is full — school runs, sports, homework, bedtime routines. But what if, right in the middle of it all, your family could connect with other families, grow in your faith, and share life? If you've ever thought, "I'd love to connect, but what about the kids?", Betsy Torres shared some creative ways families in our church make it work. SMALL GROUP MEETING OUTLINE

Where your faith intersects with real life!

"The Law of Reciprocity: God Multiplies What You Release"

KINGDOM-DRIVEN GENEROSITY - PT 3
Pastor Matt Mylin — August 31, 2025

Luke 6:37-38; Malachi 3:8-11; Matthew 6:33; Matthew 25:19-21

The Law of Reciprocity:

- God will overflow your life with what you generously pour into others.

The Practice of Reciprocity:

1. Sow faithfully.

- Releasing what you have for God's purposes makes room for multiplication.

2. Wait patiently.

3. Reap purposefully and repeat.

Reconnect:

Each person shares a recent high and low from their life.

Explore:

Review the message notes.

Big Idea: The law of reciprocity is a kingdom principle where generosity makes room for multiplication, trusting that God multiplies what we release for His purposes.

Consider:

Choose one or two questions for your Group to discuss as time allows.

1. Share an experience where you've seen God multiply something you've given or released for His purposes.
2. Discuss the three practices of reciprocity mentioned in the sermon:
 - a. Sow faithfully — release what you fear to lose.
 - b. Wait patiently — trust when you can't see the results.
 - c. Reap purposefully and repeat — live like it all belongs to Him.

Which of these do you find most challenging and why?

3. The sermon emphasized that multiplication is not for personal gain but for kingdom assignment. How does this perspective change the way we approach generosity and stewardship?

Activate:

Spend a moment in silence to consider your response, then share with the Group.

How might God be asking you to trust Him with your resources right now?

Prayer:

Thank God for the highs and lift up the lows.

Thank God for His generosity towards us and ask for wisdom and courage to be generous stewards of all He has entrusted to us. Pray for opportunities to participate in God's kingdom work through our giving.
