Call to Worship (adapted from Psalm 67)
One: May God be gracious to us and bless us and make God's face to shine upon us.
All: Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you.
One: May God's way be known upon the earth, God's saving power among all nations.
All: Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you.
One: Come, let us worship our God.

Hymn 35 – Praise Ye the Lord, the Almighty LOBE DEN HERREN

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession
Gracious and merciful God, as we turn to you this day with penitent hearts, we confess that we have allowed outside pressures and ideas to define our actions rather than be led by your spirit into the truth. Open our hearts to you, hearts that long to love you as you love us, hearts that long to love one another as you have taught us to love. Forgive our misjudgments; strengthen our resolve, that we might speak and act and live and love according to your will. Amen.

Dorothy Day (1897-1980) was an American journalist and Catholic social activist. She was the cofounder of the Catholic Worker newspaper which focused on the church's teaching on social justice.

Fintan O'Caroll included this melody in his Mass of the Annunciation premiered at the Summer School of the Irish Church Music Association in 1981. He died the next year. As a tribute, composer Christopher Walker used the melody in his Celtic Mass published in 1985. "Alleluia" derives from a combination of the Hebrew word Hallel (praise) and Yah (one abbreviation of the unpronounceable tetragrammaton YHWH—sometimes translated as "Yahweh"). Together we get the meaning "praise God" or "praise the Lord."

Baptism is one of the two sacraments recognized by the Presbyterian Church (USA). Baptism enacts and seals what the Word proclaims: God's redeeming grace offered to all people. Baptism is at once God's gift of grace, God's means of grace, and God's call to respond to that grace.

Assurance of Pardon

Passing of the Peace

One: The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
All: And also with you.

but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Kelly Gold, soprano

In the morning when I rise, give me Jesus.

(11:00) With prayer and supplication Amy Beach (1867-1944)

WMPC Adult Choir

With prayer and supplication, let your requests be known unto God.
And the peace of God which passeth all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds through Jesus Christ our Lord.
(Phil 4:6-7)

Amy Beach was an American composer and pianist. Her piano performance career began at age 16. She was the first successful American female composer. In 1896 the Boston Symphony premiered her "Gaelic" Symphony. She wrote several sacred compositions for choir in addition to orchestral, chamber and solo piano works.

Offertory Response Hymn – Doxology with Alleluias LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Affirmation of Faith Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell;
the third day he arose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand
of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting.

The earliest form of the Apostles' Creed was developed in the first century, and by the eighth century it had attained its present form. In a time when most Christians were illiterate, oral repetition of the Apostles' Creed, along with the Lord's Prayer and the Ten Commandments, helped preserve and transmit the faith among believers.

WE GO IN GOD'S NAME

Hymn 69 – I, the Lord of Sea and Sky HERE I AM (Schutte)

Charge and Benediction

Chiming of the Trinity

The worship service ends with the Chiming of the Trinity.
Please be mindful of those who remain to listen to the postlude.

Postlude – Proclamation on Puer Nobis Nascitur David Schelat (b. 1955)

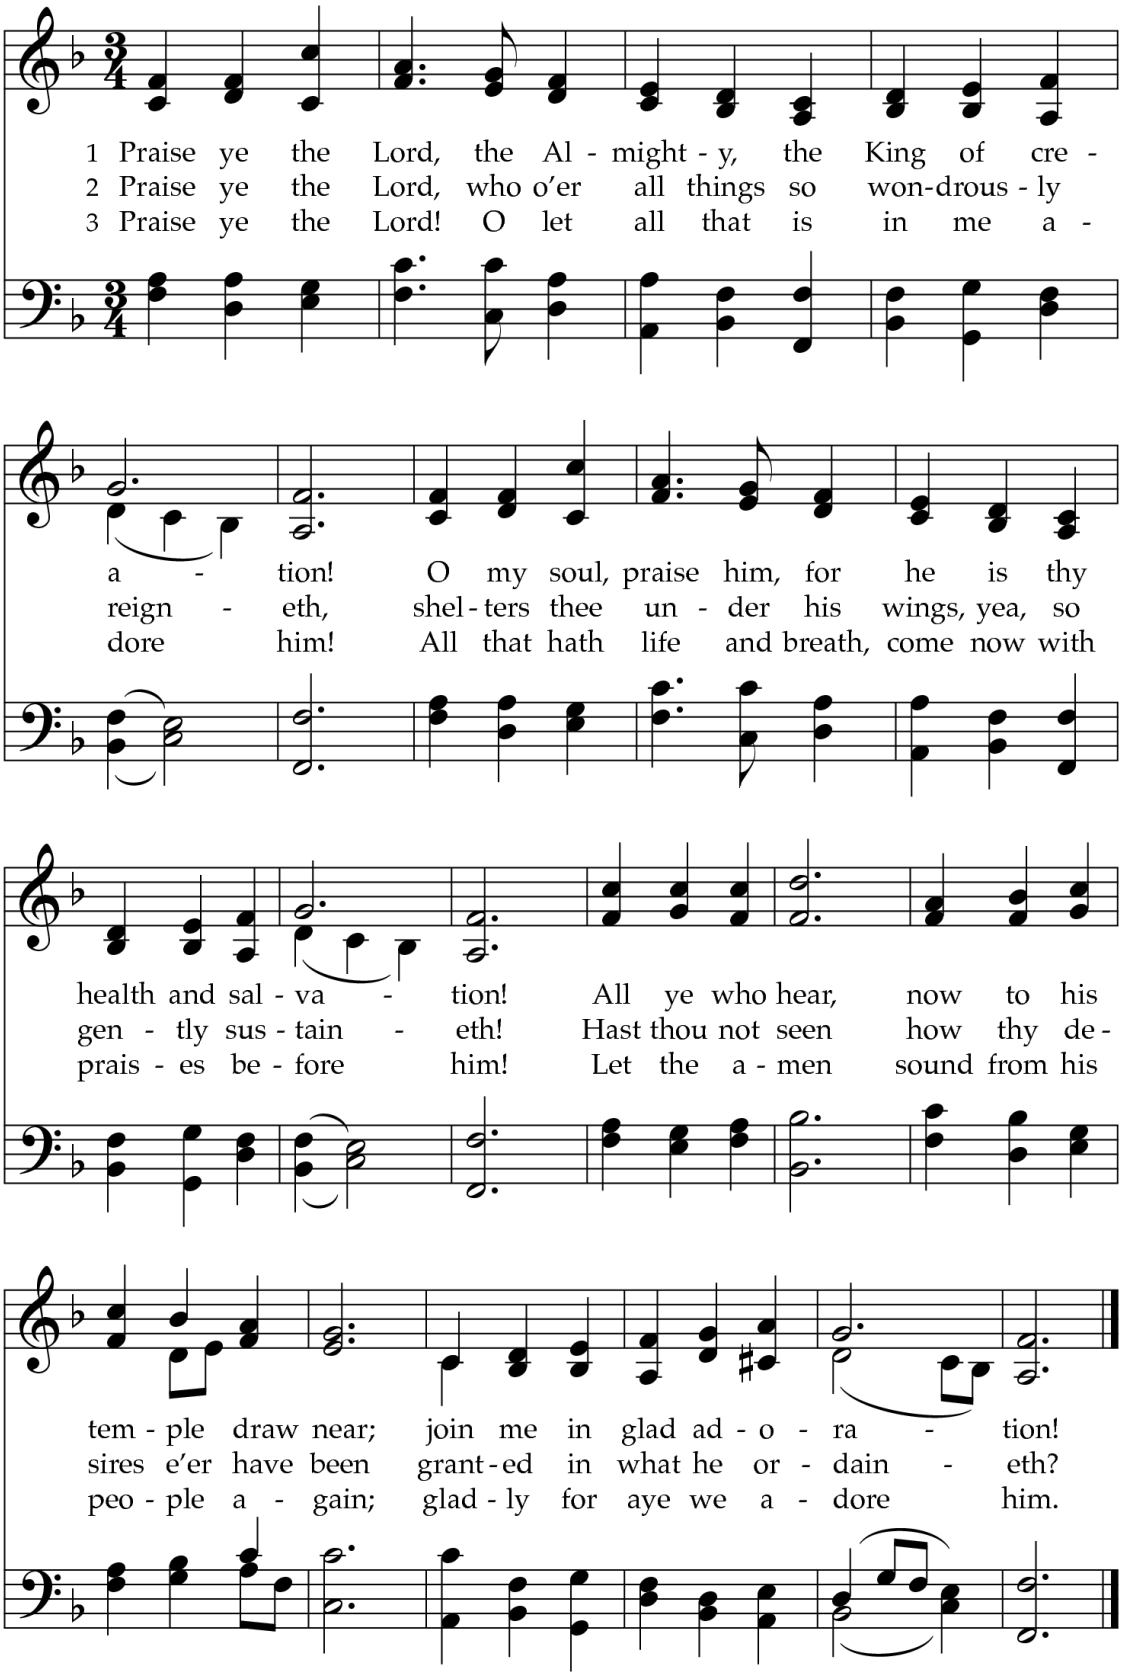
35 Praise Ye the Lord, the Almighty



This very strong 17th-century German hymn employs many phrases from the psalms, especially Psalms 150 and 103:1–6. It did not receive an effective English translation until the mid-19th century, but has remained popular ever since, thanks in part to its stirring tune.

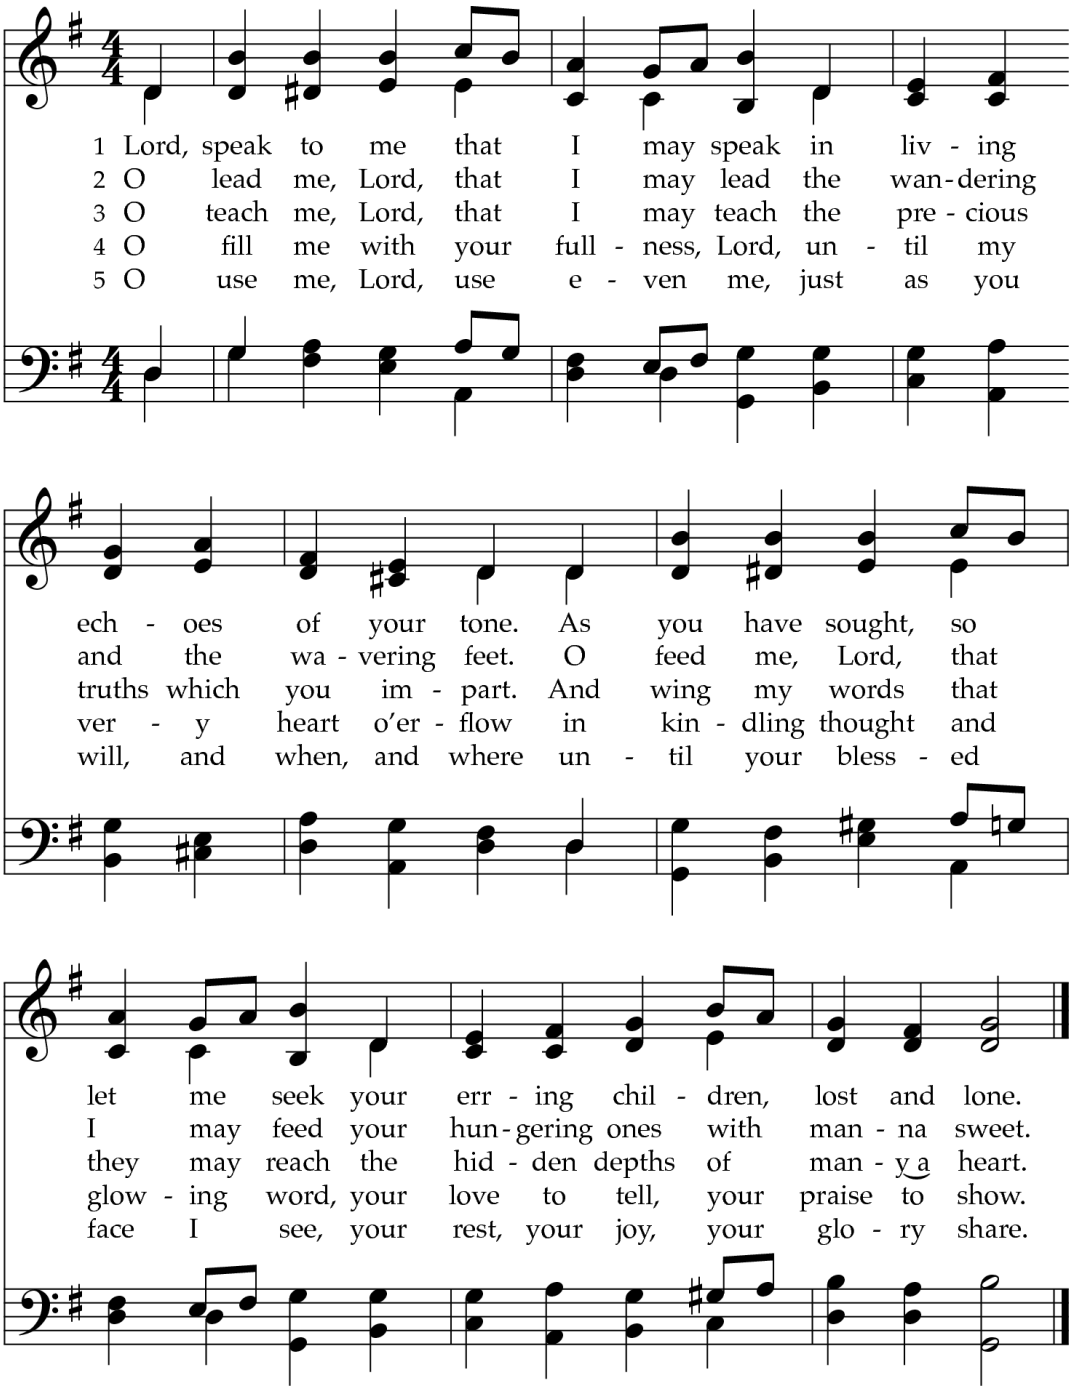
DISCIPLESHIP AND MISSION

722 Lord, Speak to Me That I May Speak



Two great truths inform this text: first, that the testimony of experience is powerful and persuasive; and second, that no one should venture to minister on one's own strength rather than God's. The tune reflects a 19th-century practice of adapting piano pieces as hymn tunes.

TEXT: Frances Ridley Havergal, 1872, alt.
MUSIC: Robert Schumann, 1839, alt.

CANONBURY

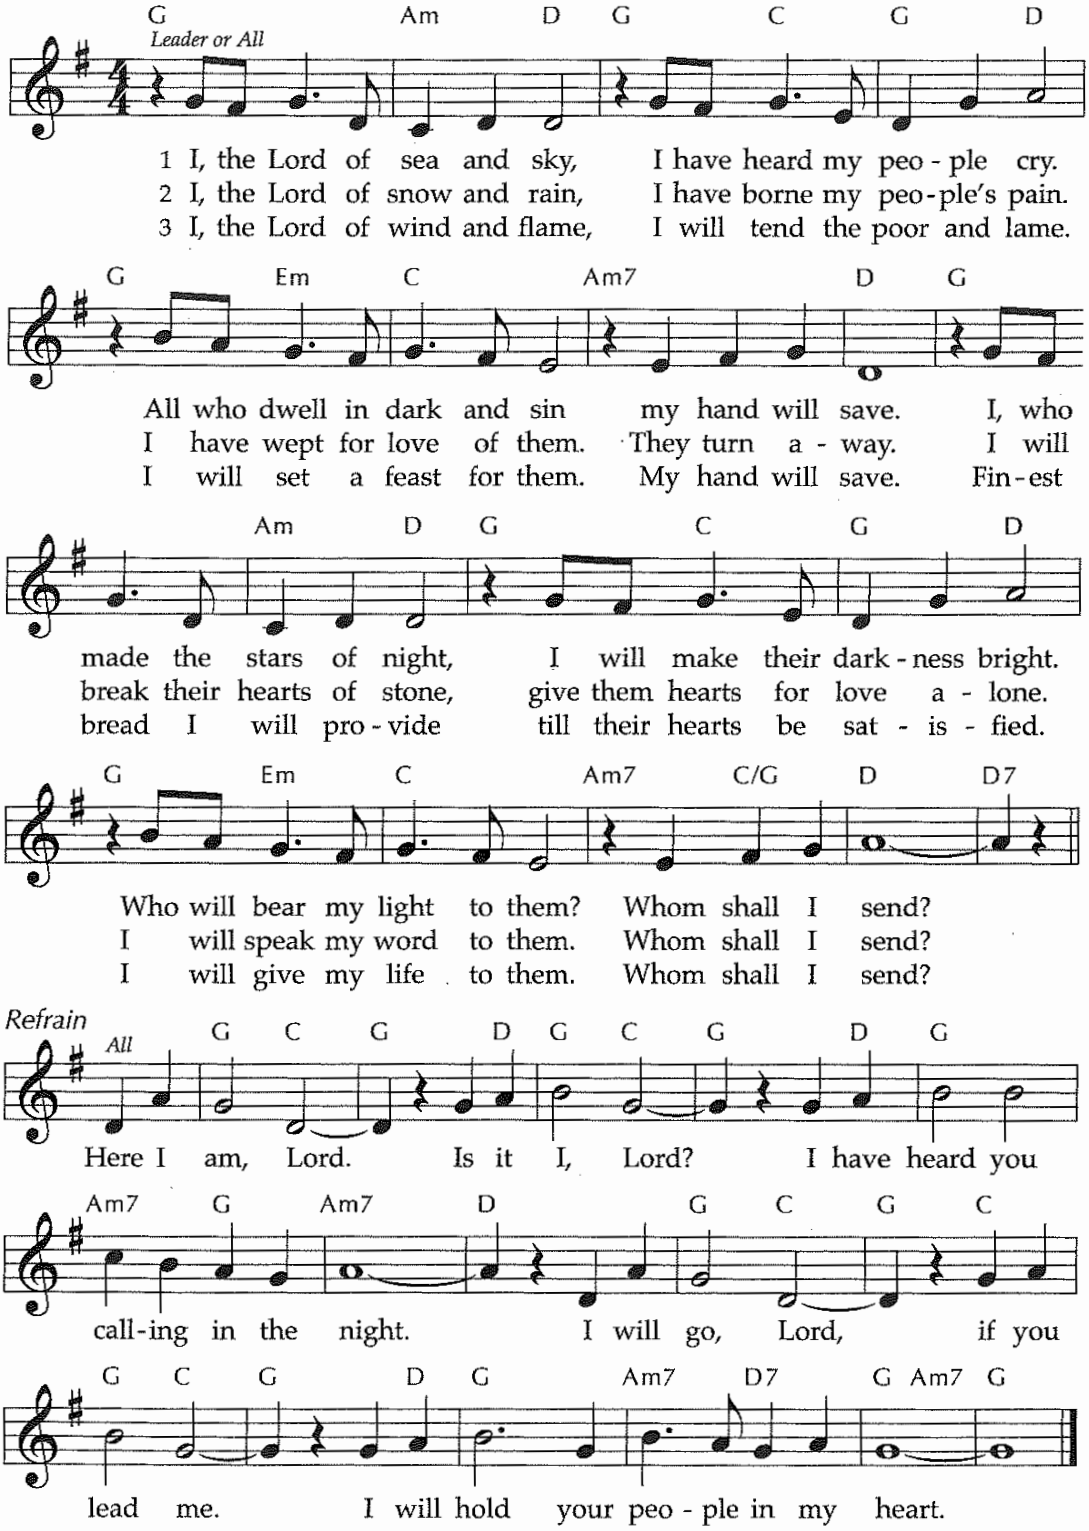
69 I, the Lord of Sea and Sky

Here I Am, Lord



The stanzas here need to be understood as representing the voice of God, while the refrain (based on Isaiah 6:8) is the faithful human response to God's call. This becomes clearer if a leader or small group sings the stanzas, with the congregation joining on the refrain.

WMPC Pastoral Care Sunday

May 22, 2022

Today is Pastoral Care Sunday which is a day to celebrate and share what God is doing through the many caring ministries of our congregation. Members of our pastoral care ministry programs will be wearing nametags and we encourage you to ask them about what they do and perhaps how you might get involved.

PASTORAL CARE

WMPC pastors are always available to our membership for pastoral emergencies. Because life events don't always happen during regular office hours, we have a pastor on call evenings, weekends, and holidays. You can reach the Pastor on Call by dialing 919-605-4593; the pastor will respond as soon as possible, usually within the hour.

All WMPC pastors offer direct pastoral care for members and friends of the church. Contact a pastor directly or call our Pastor on Call at 919-605-4593.

MEMBER TO MEMBER CARE

The Agape Care Teams are a ministry of presence that creates opportunities for meaningful long-term connections between volunteers and individuals who, because of life circumstances, are seldom or never able to come to church. If you are looking for meaningful long-term connections or will share compassion and love through regular visits, contact Susan Hibbert.

The Angel Food Ministry is a caring group of church members dedicated to providing meals to those who have recently been discharged from local hospitals or have otherwise had an interruption in their daily lives. If receiving a meal would help ease a tough time in your daily life or if you want to help stock the freezer or deliver meals, contact Bruce Mullin or Jan Stewart.

Cancer Companions is a ministry dedicated to helping people dealing with cancer draw closer to Christ. This includes those currently being treated for cancer, those post treatment, their loved ones, and their caregivers. Our trained volunteers offer one-to-one support throughout the year, and twice a year we offer a small group where we encourage each other through videos, devotionals, and inspiring stories of faith. For more information, contact Jim Ferry or Jean Williams.

Our Prayer Ministry has a network of people committed to bringing before God the gratitude and needs of the community and beyond. If you would like our team to pray for you by name or anonymously, visit https://www.whitememorial.org/prayer-ministry/ and click the Request Prayer button.

Stephen Ministry is a one-to-one caring ministry that equips and empowers people to provide high-quality, confidential, Christ-centered care to people who are hurting. Find more about Stephen Ministry by contacting Nancy Benninger.

HEALTH MINISTRY

Exercise classes are offered to help our members attain their health objectives. You can find the classes on our website at https://www.whitememorial.org/health-ministry/. Please contact the instructor for information on the class.

WMPC's Health Ministry Committee offers a variety of clinics throughout the year, from the AARP Safe Driver course and CPR/AED training to blood drives and flu shot clinics. For more information, contact Ruth Landers.

We have wheelchairs, walkers, shower chairs and more to loan. We also take donations of good clean used medical equipment. For more information on Medical Equipment Loans, contact Jean Williams.

The mission of the Mental Health & Wellness Ministry is to promote mental wellness by building and sustaining a culture of love, help and hope through advocacy, support and education. As a part of that mission, we will strive to reduce the stigma of mental illness and addiction and to welcome and promote inclusion of all people in the life and leadership of this faith community. For more information, contact Penny Carlo.

GRIEF CARE

Grief touches us all at some point in our lives. No one ever needs to feel alone during this difficult time. For more information on Healing Through Grief, contact Cate Church Norman.
