

A Service of Witness to the Resurrection

Nina Musselman Page

May 25, 1924 – December 14, 2022

White Memorial Presbyterian Church
Raleigh, North Carolina

Order for Worship - Witness to the Resurrection
Nina Musselman Page
January 6, 2022
2 p.m.

Prelude	Karl Zinsmeister
Opening Sentences and Call to Worship	Christopher Edmonston
*Hymn 664 Morning Has Broken	BUNESSAN
Prayer of Invocation	Christopher Edmonston
Old Testament Lessons – Psalm 23	Christopher Edmonston
Family Remembrance	Susie Lodewijks
New Testament Lessons John 11:17-27 John 14: 1-6; 25-27	Andy Pynch
Witness to the Resurrection	Christopher Edmonston
Prayer of Intercession and the Lord's Prayer (hymnal p. 35)	Andy Pynch
*Hymn 687 Our God, our Help in Ages Past	St. Anne
*Words of Committal and Benediction	Christopher Edmonston
*Chiming of the Trinity
*Postlude	Karl Zinsmeister

*Please rise in body or spirit.

Ushers distributed cards you may use to make note of your presence today.
Please leave your completed card on the pew.

You are welcome to greet the family for a reception in the Jane Bell Gathering Space after the Service.

OBITUARY

Nina Musselman Page, 98, of Raleigh, North Carolina, passed away peacefully on December 14, 2022. Nina's friends and family remember her as a sporty, fun-loving woman who adored her family. She and her husband, Ernest Benjamin Page, met in medical school and married on March 20, 1948. They had five children. Nina was active in her children's lives by teaching them to cook, volunteering as a scout leader, teaching them to swim, and participating in school activities.

Nina was born on May 25, 1924 to Edgar and Bernice Musselman in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. She graduated from Duke University in 1945 and Duke University Medical School in 1949. She completed a pediatric internship at McGill University in Montreal, Canada. After raising her five children, she worked as a physician at Dorothea Dix Hospital and at North Carolina State University Student Health Service. Nina loved being a doctor. She was proud of starting a women's health clinic at the NCSU Student Health Service. She also gave talks about health issues to the Girl Scouts, to church youth groups, and on the radio.

Nina's faith was an important aspect of her life. She and Ernest joined White Memorial Presbyterian Church in 1955. Nina participated in Bible studies, attended circle meetings, taught Sunday School, and traveled to Mexico on multiple mission trips. She was awarded an Honorary Lifetime Membership in the Presbyterian Women of the Church for her commitment and service to White Memorial.

Nina will always be remembered for her extraordinary warmth and kindness. She was at many people's sides when they needed her most. Nina had a phenomenal memory, and she always took time to listen to people. She took great interest in everyone she met, rarely forgetting a name, and often remembering the smallest details of other people's lives.

Her family will never forget her good-humored competitive streak. She loved playing bridge, scrabble, boggle, and other games with friends and family alike.

Nina is survived by her children: Judith Genaille (Richard), Ernie Page (Ann), Becky Pynch, Susie Lodewijks (John) and her sister, Marian Mitchell. She was predeceased by her husband Ernest Page Jr, daughter Peggy Page, and son-in-law Tom Pynch. Nina's eleven grandchildren and twenty-one great grandchildren fondly remember time spent with Oma, and will miss her dearly.

The family would like to thank the staff at Springmoor Life Care Community for the kind and loving care that they gave to Nina. Visitation will be held at Springmoor Life Care Community on January 7th at 2 PM in the Terrace Room in South Village. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to White Memorial Presbyterian Church or to the Springmoor Endowment Fund.

Online condolences at CremationSocietyNC.com