WHITE MEMORIAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH | FEBRUARY 2026

Beatitudes

I have been thinking a lot about the Beatitudes lately. Found in Matthew 5:1-12, they form the beginning of the Sermon on the Mount and represent some of the most important words Jesus ever spoke. They are very near my mind these days because we will use them in worship two weeks in a row this February. They are the appointed text for February 1, and many months ago, our High School students chose these same verses for Youth Sunday on February 8. So, I have had the occasion to read the text, think deeply about it, and to pray about it repeatedly.

I pray that many of you are familiar with them. They say this:

*When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:
'Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
'Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
'Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.
'Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.
'Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.
'Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.
'Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
'Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
'Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.*

Only 170 or so words in English, they speak richly of the blessing of being peacemakers, of meekness (gentleness), and of being pure of heart. These words call us when our spirits are poor and our faith is weak to remember the kingdom of heaven. They call us children of God. They inspire us to seek righteousness.

Lately, it takes courage to even watch the news, and then it takes prayer to discern how to respond and act. If we focused on Jesus' words in the Beatitudes, we would be blessed by 170 words that could, if we actually put them into practice every day, serve as a tonic for our time. As Christians, our first loyalty is to Jesus. And Jesus, in Matthew 5, blesses us while giving us a vision as to what he longs for the world to look like. Hymn 372, O for a World, ends like this: "The poor are rich; the weak are strong; the foolish ones are wise. Tell all who mourn: outcasts belong, who perishes will rise. O for a world preparing for God's glorious reign of peace, where time and tears will be no more, and all but love will cease."

May grace abound,

Christopher Edmonston, Pastor

Elizabeth & Bob Viohl

After 19 years on staff, Elizabeth Bailey Viohl will retire on February 4, 2026. We are deeply grateful for her years of faithful service to White Memorial Presbyterian Church.

Elizabeth has truly been part of the heartbeat of our church—faithfully maintaining our membership records and serving with dedication and care as our Membership Coordinator. Her steady presence, attention to detail, and commitment to our congregation have meant more than words can express. We will miss her greatly and wish Elizabeth and Bob every blessing in this new season of life. She already has plans to stay busy with pickleball and mahjong!

To celebrate and give thanks for the many ways Elizabeth has served WMPC, please join us for a congregational reception between 10:15-10:45 a.m. on Sunday, February 1, in the Hub.

Baskets will be available around campus if you would like to share a note of appreciation, and love offerings in honor of Elizabeth's retirement may be made at whitememorial.org/register.

A member of WMPC since 1992, Elizabeth has also been actively involved in numerous groups and circles over the years. While she is retiring from staff, we're grateful that we'll continue to see her around campus.

4:00-6:00 p.m. | R400 | Registration required

Whether you have suffered the recent loss of a loved one or are struggling with a loss in the past, you are invited to come together for a series of five sessions to help you along your journey of grief.

Each session explores different aspects of grief: from acceptance of your loss and working through its pain, to adjusting to a new way of being while honoring a very significant relationship in your life. Each session builds upon the other, so attendance is encouraged at each session. This class is led by Associate Pastor Cate Church Norman and Pastoral Resident Lee Hunter.

CAN A STEPHEN MINISTER HELP YOU WITH YOUR LIFE JOURNEY?

White Memorial has a vibrant Stephen Ministry program and trained Stephen Ministers who would welcome the opportunity to walk with you during a difficult part of your life's journey.

Life experiences such as grief or loss, a personal illness or that of a loved one and relationship issues are just a few examples of times when you could use some additional support. Stephen Ministers are trained to be - and want to be - that Christian companion. Please consider a Stephen Minister as you navigate life to find the peace you need. The relationship and information exchanged is free and confidential, a safe place to say aloud your thoughts and concerns.

To learn how you can receive a Stephen Minister's confidential care, contact Laura Raynor at lauranraynor@gmail.com or Judy Yates Siker, Parish Associate, at jsiker@whitememorial.org.
