WHITE MEMORIAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH | JUNE 2026

“O Lord, How Majestic”

As Spring gives way to Summer, the full majesty of our planet is on full display. Rich greens. Explosive flowers in their full bloom. Longer days. Warmer nights. Rarely (if not never) has there been a woman or man who didn't observe the changing of the seasons and did not ask the BIG questions: how is it all kept so perfectly in balance? Where do I fit into the grand story of creation and the beautiful purposes with which God created it in the beginning? The world is so big, and I (we) are so small, why should God care about us?

If you have ever thought about any of these questions, then Psalm 8 is your friend. We read Psalm 8 on May 31, on the cusp of June, and it is a work of genius. It is a tour de force of theology. It balances the questions we all ask about our own existence and the majesty of creation. Here are some selected verses:

*O LORD, our Sovereign,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!
You have set your glory above the heavens.
When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars that you have established;
what are human beings that you are mindful of them,
mortals that you care for them?
Yet you have made them a little lower than God,
and crowned them with glory and honor.
You have given them dominion over the works of your hands;
you have put all things under their feet.*

If you read it closely, you'll get the feel and the full picture of the awe we're supposed to have when we consider the vast dimensions of the universe. The bottom line: God is SO big! God is transcendent. Beyond our wildest mental calculations and imaginations.

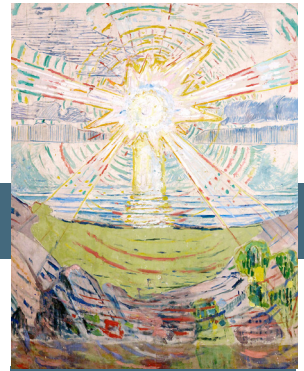

And then, the Bible pulls in a totally different way. At the exact same time. All because, and we mean this, Jesus, who is the full expression of God's love, was human and close and tangible. People really touched him, ate with him, and listened to his voice. And so our belief is that God is transcendent (beyond our full understanding) and imminent (so close we can touch God and know God in Jesus). We believe in both of these understandings (transcendent and imminent) at the same time.

What this means for you and me is two-fold. First, that we can trust that God is worthy of our trust in the long arc of history, no matter how difficult our headlines may be. God is transcendent, beyond the limits of time and memory. And second, in terms of the imminence and relatability of God, we know and trust that Jesus felt all we felt and had all the joys of human life and sufferings of all humanity, and therefore, can relate to all the feelings we have in times of want and in times of plenty. It is indeed, as the great theologians said, when they read Psalm 8 (above) and words of Jesus, like "I am with you always, even until the end of the age." You see, both are true. And I take great confidence in knowing that while God is beyond history, God can also relate to all the things I think and feel and know in the one life on this earth I have been given. May it be so with all of you.

May grace abound,

Christopher Edmonston, Pastor

"IF YOU'RE JOINING US ONLINE..."

When you hear the phrase, "If you're joining us online," it highlights the vital behind-the-scenes A/V crew that works faithfully every week to create high-quality live streams and enhance the in-person worship experience. And, with a significant on-line presence every Sunday, this ministry is crucial to the vibrancy and outreach of our church.

Now, we're inviting you to be part of it as an A/V Volunteer.

Whether you're a youth or a retiree or anywhere inbetween, we need volunteers who are committed and ready to learn. You'll help with cameras, sound, and/or visual presentations to make worship come alive.

No experience? No problem.

We'll provide all the training you need, and you'll gain valuable skills and confidence along the way. The time commitment is up to you. Serve once a month or every couple of weeks—whatever fits your schedule. Right now, we are looking for volunteers for the Main Hall but once Sanctuary renovations are complete we'll need volunteers there, too.

Next step?

If you're detail-oriented, love learning new things, and want to make a real difference in how our church connects with people, this is for you. Join a team that's creative, essential, and deeply rewarding. To learn more and sign up for training, contact Gabe Spivey at gspivey@whitememorial.org or 919-834-3424, ext. 250.

IS LIFE A STRUGGLE RIGHT NOW?

Do you feel like part of your life is a continual challenge, filled with one problem after another?

Or maybe one problem is taking over your life. Would someone to walk with you on your journey to provide companionship and support be helpful? Stephen Ministers are trained to be and want to be that Christian companion.

Please consider a Stephen Minister as you search for the pieces and peace you need. The relationship and information exchanged is free and confidential, a safe place to say aloud your thoughts and concerns.

To learn how you can receive a Stephen Minister's confidential care, contact Laura Raynor at lauranraynor@gmail.com or Judy Yates Siker, Parish Associate at jsiker@whitememorial.org
