Chosen to Come and See

John 1:35-51

Pastor Scott Lehr

So, what do we get to see when we follow Jesus?

1. You will see the _____ who _____ you.

2. You will see where _____ is _____ you.

For Small Group discussion & application this week:

Based on your personal time in John 1 this week, what did God teach you?

What is your earliest memory of being invited to “come & see” Jesus? Who was it that was encouraging you and pointing you to Christ?

How is your relationship with Christ becoming more intimate? Do you enjoy God fully?

How is God leading you? What areas of your life are you holding back or asking God to follow you instead of following Him?

What did you take away from the message that you didn’t get on your own?

Looking ahead: Next Sunday, September 25, take a closer look at John 3:1-21.

As you spend time in God’s word this week, ask the Father to reveal Himself to you in a new and fresh way.

What is Jesus revealing about Himself in this passage?

Put yourself in Nicodemus’ place as a religious leader - why was this such a tough conversation for him? Why does it become difficult to trust in Jesus for salvation when you are so dependent on other things - specifically the law and practice of religious activity?

What does it mean to be born again? What is new life in Jesus?
