Ask a thought provoking question

When you were little, what did you want to be when you grew up? If you could be anything you wanted now, what would you be?

Share background and provide context to the bible story

Philippi was the key city in the region of Macedonia. Since the Jewish community in Philippi apparently lacked the required number of adult males to form a synagogue, and the Roman colonial authorities did not allow unrecognized religious groups to gather within the city limits, the women gathered to pray outside the city, beside the river.
