

WOMEN OF FAITH

FEBRUARY 25, 2024

SERIES OVERVIEW:

The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob is also the God of Sarah, Rahab, Ruth, Hannah and Esther. God has left us their stories as examples for how He works in the lives of those devoted to Him. Join us for this 5-week series as we study these Women of Faith.

MESSAGE TAKEAWAYS:

THE EVENTS OF MY LIFE MAY REVEAL MY IDENTITY, BUT THEY DO NOT HAVE TO REMAIN MY IDENTITY.

SAVING FAITH IS NOT FAITH IN MY ABILITY TO BELIEVE, SAVING FAITH IS FAITH IN GOD'S ABILITY TO DO WHAT HE SAYS.

FAITH DOES NOT REST IN MY ABILITY TO BELIEVE.
FAITH RESTS IN GOD'S ABILITY TO DO WHAT HE SAYS.

CONVERSATION QUESTIONS:

- As you think about the “women of faith” in Scripture, is there one you love and relate to? If so, who and why?
- Brannon shared five reasons for covering a series on women. Which explanation he gave resonated with or challenged you most deeply and why? (Cultural, Biblical, personal, corrective, Gospel)
- Have you ever felt defined by your inability? How have you seen God meet you in and work through that?
- “God often lets us taste our own faithlessness just long enough so that we can hate it.” How have you seen that statement to be true?

- Pastor Brannon said, “Events of my life reveal my identity, but they don’t have to remain my identity.” How does that resonate with you?
- “Is anything too hard for the LORD?” This is the question of faith Abraham and Sarah needed to hear that revealed the faithlessness of their hearts and the faithfulness of God. In what ways can you remember the faithfulness of God in your life?
- Saving faith is not faith in my ability to believe. Saving faith is faith in God's ability to do what He says. // Read 2 Corinthians 5:21 and thank God for His work.

FINAL THOUGHTS:

As we continue on this journey, we would love to help you in any way we can. If you are wondering what next steps are right for you, please reach out, and we’d love to have a conversation with you or your group about the season you are in and the places Jesus has entrusted to you as you seek to be formed by His Word.
