

The Weekly Visitor

Dear OSLC Family,

What might happen when we encounter someone having a mental health crisis? Do we know what to do or say? Tomorrow afternoon Jackie Schmoldt will lead a training class in the Hearth Room from 1pm-3pm on QPR (Question-Persuade-Refer). I highly recommend everyone participate in this event so that more of us can be equipped to notice and help others who may be having mental health issues or even suicidal thoughts. Being church after church also means tending to each other's mental health. Please join us for this special training!

There are two remaining midweek ecumenical services that our West Bend area churches have been hosting. This coming Wednesday (March 13th @ noon) I will be the preacher at Trinity Lutheran Church. Please come out and pray along with our neighbors this Lenten Season!

Thought for the week: "God doesn't need to rest after creating the universe because he's tired. He rests because he is holy, and everything that God does is holy. God rests. God is holy. Therefore, rest is holy. It's simple math." -Matthew Sleeth, MD

With you a Christian. For you a Pastor.

(QPR Training was held on Saturday, March 9th.)

Flowers with your wishes and blessings, your hugs and kind words made my birthday extra special. But then extra special is the wonderful gift God created each of you with a heart that overflows with friendship and love that touches others. Thank you again.

Deacon Sherie

Help us create a beautiful "Easter Garden" of flowers once again. The forms are located in the gathering area. The deadline for orders is Sunday, March 17th.

The entire family is invited to join us for The Kids Egg Hunt!

Sunday, March 17, 2024
from 9 am to 9:45 am

Kids bring your Easter Basket to collect all your eggs!

Invite a friend and their family to join you! The Hunt will take place on the front lawn or in Fellowship Hall if the weather doesn't cooperate.

There will be activities and games for families to do together along with extra treats. A fun OSLC Kids' Ministry tradition to help prepare our hearts for the Joy of Easter Morning.

Thank you, Lord, for who you are!
Thank you for your creations both great and small. You amaze me with your imagination, your vivid colors and surprising sense of humor. Thank you for loving me unconditionally. As you love me for who I am, you also love others, even those I have difficulty loving. You are love! Thank you for strengthening me when troubled and cheering for me when I am joyful. Sometimes, I think I feel the warmth of you smiling. I wonder at times why I don't thank you more? You are patient, a good listener, wise, kind and trustworthy. I am secure in you. Like David in the Psalms, help me to be a person after your own heart. Thank you always for picking me up, brushing me off and walking beside me on my path. Or should I say "our" path? Thank you.

(Members of the Monday morning Bible study recently finished reading through the Book of Psalms and courageously wrote their own modern day prose of psalm!)
