Dr. Richard Booker on God's Wrath

God is always holy, just, loving, good, and merciful toward sinners- while simultaneously, his moral, holy anger called wrath, burns against sin. His wrath is not passing emotion as with humans. It comes from within His nature and is eternal just as He is eternal.

11

Dr. Richard Booker on God's Wrath

Because God is morally perfect, His holy nature requires that the judgment for sin must be separation from Him...God's just nature requires that the judgment be paid.

Yet God's goodness and mercy do not desire us to pay the judgment ourselves. God's love came to earth and paid the judgment for us in the person of Jesus of Nazareth. This is the story of the Bible from beginning to end.
