MESSAGE DISCUSSION GUIDE

1. Were you once a wayward child who ended up going back home? Briefly share your experience and how you're parent/s received you when you returned.
2. What if God handles wayward children different than our parents or we have with our kids?How might that look different?
3. Read Luke 15:11-32.Chronicle briefly what the son did.
4. The son had a strong will to ask for his inheritance even before the father had died, to blow his money in wild living, and delay returning home until he was destitute. How is our will the same when there is something we want?
5. Describe what the father did in response.How do you think the son received his dad's response?

  - a. Micah 7:18-19 - 2 Peter 3:9 - Exodus 34:6
  - b. Given these characteristics, how would God respond to the son's attitude, action, and return?
7. When we walk away from God, he waits for us to repent and come home.When we return, he is quick to welcome and celebrate us!How do many feel about going back to church after having pulled away for a time? How might God's celebration of us change the way we look at returning to church?
8. What can you do to welcome those who have pulled away and are returning?How can you walk alongside those who are new to faith?
