INTRODUCTION, BACKGROUND, AND SCRIPTURE, SERMON POINTS

Mark 2:3–12

Then they came to Him, bringing a瘫痪者 who was carried by four men. And when they could not come near Him because of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where He was. So when they had broken through, they let down the bed on which the瘫痪者 was lying. When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the瘫痪者, “Son, your sins are forgiven you.”

Some of the scribes were sitting there and reasoning in their hearts, “Why does this Man speak blasphemies like this? Who can forgive sins but God alone?” But immediately, when Jesus perceived in His spirit that they reasoned thus within themselves, He said to them, “Why do you reason about these things in your hearts? Which is easier, to say to the瘫痪者, ‘Your sins are forgiven you,’ or to say, ‘Arise, take up your bed and walk?’ But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins”—He said to the瘫痪者, “I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go to your house.”

Immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went out in the presence of them all, so that all were amazed and glorified God, saying, “We never saw anything like this!”

Introduction

Super Bowl Sunday reminds us of a truth we often forget: great victories are never the result of one person alone. Football powerfully demonstrates that while talent may get the spotlight, teamwork wins the mission.

That’s why the story in Mark 2:3–12 matters so much. The paralyzed man didn’t walk into Jesus’ presence on his own—he was carried by four men. When the door was blocked, they didn’t quit. When the crowd resisted, they didn’t retreat. They climbed, dug, and lowered their friend into the presence of Jesus because they understood a powerful truth: when one can’t move, others must carry. Jesus didn’t just respond to the faith of the man on the mat—Scripture says, “When Jesus saw their faith...”

African American Highlight: Walter Payton

Known as “Sweetness,” Walter Payton played with both grace and grit.

- Famous for blocking for teammates, not just running the ball
- Rarely celebrated touchdowns—he simply handed the ball to the official
- Believed success was about the team, not personal glory

Point 1: God’s Strength Is the Power Behind the Team

Mark 2:3–6 The four men’s faith and action brought their friend to Jesus. God’s strength is what empowered their teamwork.

Ephesians 4:16 “From whom the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies... causes growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love.”

Ephesians 3:20–21 “Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, to Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.”

Point 2: Shared Responsibility Moves the Mission Forward

Ecclesiastes 4:9–10 “Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labor. For if they fall, one will lift up his companion...”

1 Corinthians 12:12–14 We are one body with many members—each unique, each essential.

Romans 12:6–8 We have different gifts, given by God’s grace. Let’s use them—whether in teaching, leading, giving, or serving.

Point 3: Persistent Prayer Unites and Propels the Team

Mark 2:10–12 Jesus healed the man because of the faith and unity of the team.

James 5:16 “The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much.”

Ephesians 6:18 “Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit...”

1 Peter 4:10 “As each one has received a gift, minister it to one another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.”

BEYOND THE MESSAGE

Mark 2:3–12 shows us that teamwork multiplies strength and makes the impossible reachable. The paralyzed man couldn’t reach Jesus alone—his faith was carried by others. Four men picked him up, carried his weight, and refused to let obstacles stop them. This miracle began not with Jesus speaking, but with people moving together. When the front door was blocked, they climbed higher, dug deeper, and worked harder. Teamwork turned an obstacle into an opportunity. Alone, none of them could have done this. Together, they made a way where there was no way.

Support is as powerful as belief. Scripture says, “When Jesus saw their faith...”—not just the faith of the man, but of the team. Their faith was active: they lifted, broke through, and held on. Teamwork means staying connected when the journey is heavy, progress is slow, and effort is inconvenient. The paralyzed man was healed because he was surrounded by people who refused to drop him. When we support one another, we become conduits for God’s healing, restoration, and breakthrough.

Finally, Mark 2 reminds us that the mission is bigger than the method or the individual. The four men didn’t argue about who would carry which corner—they just carried. They didn’t stop to explain themselves—they moved with purpose. When Jesus healed the man, the result was greater than anyone imagined: sins forgiven, bodies healed, faith strengthened, and God glorified. That’s what happens when people unite around a shared mission. When everyone does their part, sets aside ego, and focuses on getting people to Jesus, the dream doesn’t just work—it transforms lives. Teamwork doesn’t just make the dream work; it makes room for miracles.
