January 2026

A couple of weeks ago Tuesday morning bible study was trying to decide what new topic people wanted to study. After some discussion it became clear that what people were wrestling with was despair in the face of all that is happening in our world. I don't think I have to list everything that is going on for you, dear readers, to understand the feeling. If you take two minutes to look at the news, both local and national, one can easily get the impression that the world is falling apart we feel adrift amidst all that chaos.

Ephesians 1:3-10 is the clearest summary of reasons why Christians should have hope.

There Paul writes:

"Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ. For he chose us in him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in his sight. In love he predestined us for adoption to sonship through Jesus Christ, in accordance with his pleasure and will—to the praise of his glorious grace, which he has freely given us in the One he loves. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and understanding, he made known to us the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he purposed in Christ, to be put into effect when the times reach their fulfillment—to bring unity to all things in heaven and on earth under Christ."

So our reasons for hope are pretty clearly laid out. We have been blessed by God through Jesus Christ with every blessing. We have been chosen from the beginning to be God's people and God has adopted us into his family. Grace is freely given and God loves us. Finally, all things, in the end, will be brought to unity in Jesus Christ. If that isn't reason enough for hope then I don't know what is.

However, Paul doesn't end there. A little bit later in verse 18 Paul writes that "I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you." So hope is not just a gift, and not just a logical conclusion as Christians, but also a calling. Callings are things that must be lived out and practiced.

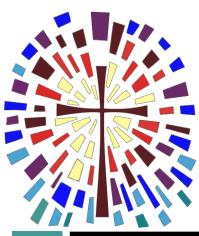

Practicing hope can be hard because we think of hope often as a feeling that just happens. Over the next few months I'll write more in this space about how to practice hope. Where practicing hope begins is taking all those reasons for hope Paul lays out in Ephesians and daily reminding yourself of them. Often practicing hope means saying to yourself "I will be hopeful today because God has blessed me in every way, he has chosen me, and destined me for grace and love and new life."

Afterall, if all that is true, why shouldn't we be hopeful?

Q & A with The Pastor and the Recovering Heretic

If you've ever had questions about your faith, or questioned if you should even have faith, join us for The Pastor and the Recovering Heretic every Sunday after service. It's an open discussion about anything you've ever wondered about religion. As a recovering heretic, Dan Mushalko takes no Church teaching at face value...while Pastor Dave Kamphuis taps his vast knowledge of Church history and theology to fill in the gaps of our doubt. Most importantly, they take your questions, too. Join us around 11:15am live in the WLC, or on our live YouTube stream at <https://bit.ly/RELC-QA>.

Adult Education every Sunday before service at 9am

Pastor Dave is teaching the adult education class again in Room 7 on Sunday mornings before 10am worship. He will be going more in depth with the text for that Sunday.

All are welcome!

Visiting with the Vicar,

Grace and Peace to you from our Lord and Savior, our Emmanuel, Jesus Christ the Lord.

Merry Christmas!

'Merry Christmas?' you say to yourself. Christmas Eve and Christmas Day have passed. Why is that crazy Vicar still wishing us a Merry Christmas?

When Julia and I first got together, she, coming from the United Methodist tradition, one of the first issues we had as a married couple was when Christmas was over. For her, her family tradition was to box up Christmas the day after. For me, when we got together, I struggled with this notion. Being raised in a somewhat orthodox Lutheran tradition, I still celebrated Christmas both in the Lutheran Church and in our family traditions until at least January 6th, Epiphany, and the Christmas tree stayed up until that point.

Now, this isn't an article about who is right and who is wrong. Rather, it's about what has become common in our society. We push the Christmas season further into the calendar, in some cases even before Halloween and All Saints

Day, when stores start flipping the script. Then the Christmas décor and markings are quickly tossed aside on December 26, both in stores and in homes and offices. However, as we encourage you to do during the weeks leading up to Christmas by holding space for Advent, I think we need to do the same with the Christmas season after Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.

For the Church, we still celebrate the 12 days of Christmastide between Christmas Day and Epiphany. We celebrate the life, birth, and early childhood of Christ. We hear in Matthew about the escape to Egypt as refugees, and in Luke about Christ teaching in the temple. While Mark and John jump right into the ministry of Jesus around the time of his baptism and the calling of the 12 disciples, I think it is important to stay in the narrative of the Christ Child during Christmas. It gives us time to ponder the mystery of God choosing to be fully human and fully divine in Jesus Christ, teaching us the importance of being good stewards of one another here on Earth. So I encourage you not to rush past the mystery and miracles of Christmas yet, but to pause and wonder at the 'word made flesh' that gives us hope in the past, present, and future.

Merry Christmas to you all,
~Vicar Keith

May the Epiphany remind us of the good news of Christ.

Happy Epiphany

Please use the sign-up sheet that's on the desk in the narthex.

<HELP NEEDED> But Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for such belongs the kingdom of heaven" Matthew 19:14

RELC offers great Sunday morning classes for children of all ages. However, the regular worship service can be a bit much for some of the younger ones. During the readings and sermon and prayers they can get a bit fidgety. So..."Children's Church" was started. There they can hear a Bible story, color a picture associated with that story and have some time to be kids.

Of course there needs to be a "grown-up" there too, to read that story and help with the coloring and other activities. Adults (ladies or gentlemen) and youth are welcome to sign up.

So...please think about signing up to lead one of these special sessions. Sign up for one Sunday a month (or more if you wish). Materials are provided, they meet in the nursery so after a lesson, there can be some fun time. Sometimes there's only one child, sometimes there may be 3 or 4.

If there are any questions please let me know. There is a sign-up sheet in the narthex or you can message the office. ~Kathy Rotolo

TIME TO PUT THE CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS AWAY

After church service on Sunday January 4 we will need some help moving the altar and taking down the two sanctuary Christmas trees. We will need 3-4 men to assist with the altar and anyone who can stay and help take off the ornaments from the trees. Those are our two main tasks for Sunday after church.

Then on Monday January 5 at 12 noon we need helpers to finish taking down and packing up the Christmas decorations from the WLC and narthex.

Please contact Carol Williams or Kathy Rotolo if you have any questions.

Giving Garden News - January 2026

This certainly is not the month I report much about the Giving Garden. But this is the time to be more reflective as the cold, dark, dreary days of January remind me of soil. Yes, soil!

As the GG soil at the surface is covered with a nice layer of straw mulch and occasionally a layer of snow, it is the deep-down soil underneath all of this is what I want to focus on. This soil is at work!

Soil in the winter continues to host bacteria, fungi and microorganisms, although they are moving at a slower pace, but they continue to break down organic matter and release nutrients for soil health.

Earthworms burrow deep into the garden soil to survive and they produce anti-freeze, so they are ready to warm up and get to work in the spring.

Microbes keep soil nutrients available and with the help of the straw mulch covering, the microbes and their production of nutrients stay nice and secure in the soil where they are needed.

My prayer for you as we enter January 2026 is that you reflect on your "soil".

May God provide you with all the spiritual nutrients you need in this New Year so that you are ready to grow a productive, faith filled garden inside of you.

Happy and Blessed New Year,

~Carol Williams

Children are always welcome at RELC and we offer a soft space option for families with littles that wish to keep their kids in church and need a little entertainment.

The RELC youth did a great job December 7th sharing about the meaning behind all the Christmas decorations on a tree. Pierce played the violin beautifully. Ewan, Henry and Gloria did a great job reading in front of the congregation.

Liam of course was fabulous decorating the tree and collecting the presents for Jesus's Birthday!

Thanks to everyone who brought gifts and supported the kids.

The kids enjoyed the piñata fun too!!
