"If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: ⁵ circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; ⁶ as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless.

⁷ Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. ⁸ More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ ⁹ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. ¹⁰ I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, ¹¹ if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead." - Philippians 3:4b-11

Paul begins our reading by listing off his accomplishments and they are impressive. He has followed the law of God to the utmost degree. His lineage and family are a source of pride. He is a religious expert with real devotion. If anyone qualifies as a truly religious person it is Paul.

And yet, for all those qualifications and successes, he regards it all as trash. Why? Well, Paul's point is that no matter how much righteousness, no matter how much good, he did on his own it doesn't matter in the end. The only thing of true value is the righteousness that comes from Jesus Christ through faith. This righteousness is the only thing that can grant new life. No amount of awards, accolades, or success can grant that. Only Jesus and his righteousness can.

So far I know you are wondering why any of this is relevant. Well, Paul here is really speaking for all of us. We all are trying to justify ourselves, to earn our place before God. Of course in that pursuit we really don't become righteous. Instead we become self-righteous. And in our self righteousness we turn out a lot like Paul. Paul's self righteous streak led him to be a persecutor of the church. Our self righteousness leads us to hurt each other too. All because we are concerned with ourselves.

So Paul reminds us that the grace of God in Jesus Christ leads us to stop thinking of ourselves and our own self-righteousness. The only way to stop hurting each other and find new life is to lay aside our own righteousness and trust in Christ and his promises. Perhaps then we will finally "attain the resurrection from the dead" and find that new life we are all looking for.

Q & A with The Pastor and the Recovering Heretic

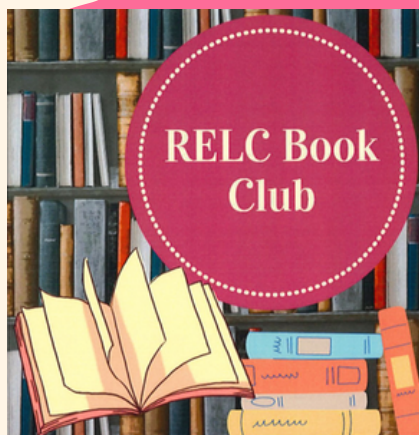

If you've ever had questions about your faith, or questioned if you should even have faith, join us for The Pastor and the Recovering Heretic most Sundays after service. It's an open discussion about anything you've ever wondered about religion. As a recovering heretic, Dan Mushalko takes no Church teaching at face value...while Pastor Dave Kamphuis taps his vast knowledge of Church history and theology to fill in the gaps of our doubt. Most importantly, they take your questions, too. Join us around 11:15am live in the WLC, or on our live YouTube stream at <https://bit.ly/RELC-QA>.

What would have happened if the rebels had captured Darth Vader? And, did the Jedi need a Martin Luther/Reformation? New episodes are released every other Thursday at <https://churchinspace.podbean.com> or wherever you listen to podcasts.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD PACKING PARTY

-We are on our way to the last leg of our 2026 Operation Christmas Child journey to pack shoe boxes and send them on their way with the Gospel message of Jesus Christ. Children all over the world have no idea how their world is going to change when they receive their boxes and learn that Jesus loves them, and so do we. Please keep those prayers for this ministry going over these last few weeks - as we prepare for the packing party (11/8) and the blessing of the boxes (11/15).

THE PACKING PARTY WILL BE ON SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 8TH, 2026 AT 5 PM IN THE WORSHIP AND LIFE CENTER.

Please mark your calendars for this date - we need lots of hands to pack the boxes and prepare them for their journey. If you have not participated in the packing before, there will be people to assist you. And of course - IT IS A PARTY- music, snacks, hot chocolate, fun, laughter and sharing!

There are some items that we still need: notebooks 100, colored pencils 100, scissors 40, prayer patches 100, some markers and rulers. All items can be brought in to the Donation Station in the narthex, and monetary donations are always welcome- we will shop for you.

Please note that we will need some extra help to get ready for the party, and are listed below.

If you can help with any of these, please see Barb Emmets or Pam Davis.

Help to bring the supplies from the room near the chapel, to the narthex, hallway and WLC, on Saturday, November 7th at 9 am

GIVING GARDEN NEWS

The fall season brings quieter times in the Giving Garden but first we must “put the garden to bed”. This involves tearing out plants from the straw bales, untangling vines from fencing, taking down stakes that served as plant props, clearing out irrigation lines so they do not freeze, cleaning out collection buckets, bins and totes, taking down and rolling up flexible fencing and organizing the garden shed. Whew, that is a lot but like most dismantling projects, taking down is a lot easier than putting up (think Christmas decorations). Plus, the weather is cooler, and these projects keep us plenty warm. October is also the month we plant garlic before the ground freezes. The garlic clove is planted 3 inches deep into the soil and we then cover it with a thick layer of straw mulch.

The spent straw bales from the garden season are valuable “black gold” and will be used to protect and nourish many areas of the GG including the raised beds, containers and inground areas.

This year I am going to experiment with planting a cover crop in one of the raised beds. The benefits of a cover crop are 1) improving soil structure and fertility, 2) weed suppression, 3) breaks pest and disease cycles, 4) produces mulch and 5) enhances soil biodiversity. Along with leaving plant roots in the soil, we will begin to support the needs of the soil ecosystem. And as our 10th year of growing a garden comes to an end, the GG (and other community gardens celebrating milestone anniversaries) will be recognized by the Growing To Green program at the annual Harvest Awards to be held on 10/8/2026. And yes, let us not forget our second-place finish in the People’s Choice category in the Dispatch Backyard Garden contest.

Thank you everyone for your support of the GG. It has been a very good year!!

Final harvest total will be announced later this year.

*Gardening for His Glory,
~Carol Williams*

Thank you to Ben Ross for completing another outside painting project. Ben generously gave us his time to paint the garage. The trim and walls and GG shed door all received a new coat of paint. It looks fabulous and we appreciate your dedication supporting various projects around the church.
