

G3 Groups: Summer 2022 – GO Phase

Week #5- Romans 12:9-21

We are called to be One Body, but how do we accomplish this call when the Body is made up of several individuals, each with unique personalities, experiences, cultural backgrounds, and other nuances? Truthfully, the manner in which we live and move may feel messy at times. A community that is becoming family can be messy, but it is a must!

The MESSY series will turn the microscope on some of the “one another” statements found in the New Testament. By committing to living out the “one another statements” we can successfully navigate the messiness and become the family that God has called us to be. As we Go as one family we allow the world to see the unity that can only come from the Spirit, thus revealing God!

Session Outline

Opening: (1-2 people to share per session)

Grow:

- What does it look like to renew our minds, continuing to become more like Christ?
- Head/heart checks:

- Do we embody this type of reverent honor (tee-may') to one another?

- Where do you feel all of this in your body? Is there any tension? Is there a place where you feel relaxed?
 - What areas can you grow in your ability to love?
 - In what ways have you correlated homogeneity with unity?
 - How do you need to grow in your listening skills?
 - Whose story do you need to hear?
