Greetings,

On July 17-24, 2024, I will be attending a mission trip with Central PA Youth Ministries to Ninilchik, Alaska. While I am there, I will be helping in painting and with some remodeling of a church. This is a tremendous opportunity for me to not only travel to a new place, but also to show kindness and help others.

Central PA Youth Ministries works throughout our community to show unchurched teens who Jesus is. They also provide unique opportunities for teens to serve. In the past, they have led trips to Mississippi following the tragedy of Hurricane Katrina and to Alaska in 2017. I think it is amazing to see how God moves in the lives of the teens and adults on mission trips. People always say that "once you go, you will never come back the same person." Most people sign up for these trips because they feel the need to go and help....to do something good. What they don't realize is that yes, we'll do good things and help people while we are there, but the most important part of these trips is what God does in your life while you are there. I pray It will be a great experience for me.

To go on this trip, I am responsible for $1800. This money primarily covers my airline ticket and travel expenses while in Alaska. I will also need additional money for food during our travel days. I will be participating in fundraising activities during the next several months to help cover some of these costs.

You are receiving this letter because I am looking for people who are willing to help finance my trip. $1800 is a lot, even with fundraising. Your help will not only allow me to go to a unique and amazing place, but I believe serving on this trip will change my life forever. So, we are asking you to prayerfully consider helping me raise the funds needed to make this trip possible. Below is a form you can use to mail in your support.

I thank you for any assistance you are able to give in helping me reach my goal and I ask for your prayers leading up to this trip and while I am going to serve on it.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration!

God bless,
