Two of today's songs come from the Great Britain. English poet Sydney Carter wrote "Lord of the Dance" which choreographs the life of Jesus as a dance. "Will You Come and Follow Me" is from the Iona Community of Scotland. It's dancelike verses are spoken from God to us in a variety of ministry settings, however the last verse is our response to God. As Jesus called the disciples he is calling us to follow him.

Inviting People to Church
Let's face it, it's tough! How do I bring up the conversation? What if they say no? But "what if" God has been preparing your heart? What if they say yes? What if they could find healing at church? What if they decide to have a relationship with Jesus? What if they experience an authentic community and love it the first time? What if our church renews their hope and faith in Christ? Contact Pastor Kim (kdubreuil@firstumc.org) if you're interested in exploring whether First Church is for you.

DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Monday: Read John 12:20. Reflect on who the Greeks were and what their desire to see Jesus signifies about the universal appeal of Christ. Consider who in your life is seeking him. Think about your own journey of seeking Christ. What does it mean to truly seek him?

Tuesday: Read John 12:21. The Greeks approached Philip with a request. Reflect on the importance of asking questions in faith and being open to guidance. Are there questions you need to bring to God? How can you seek answers with an open heart?

Wednesday: Read John 12:22. Philip didn't respond alone; he went to Andrew. Reflect on the importance of community in our faith journey and seeking Christ together. Who are the people in your life that help you seek Jesus? Consider reaching out to them this week.

Thursday: Read John 12:21-22. The request to see Jesus is an invitation to a deeper relationship. Reflect on how you can cultivate a more profound encounter with Christ in your daily life. What steps can you take to be more intentional about seeking and experiencing Jesus?

Friday: Read John 12:20-22. Consider how you can respond to the call to see and know Jesus more intimately. What changes might you need to make? In what ways can you actively pursue a closer relationship with Christ this week?

Prayer: Eternal God, thank you for the invitation to seek you and to know you more deeply. Help us, like the seekers in John 12, to approach you with open hearts and minds. May we not only seek answers but also cultivate relationships within our community that draw us closer to you. Guide us as we pursue a deeper understanding of your love and grace in our lives. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.
