EZEKIEL 3:1

Your words were found, so I ate them. Your words were a delight to me and the joy of my heart. For I am called by Your Name, Adonai-Elohei-Tzva'ot." Jeremiah 15:16.

Let's begin with Happy New Year! Well, at least in the Gregorian sense, since that's the calendar most of the world uses. January 1 marks the beginning a new year and new beginnings are often welcomed as a time of renewal, a fresh start and commitment.

Now, you may ask, what is the connection between the two scriptures at the beginning of this article and the new year? It is this: one of the things so many of us do at the beginning of a new year is make resolutions to do better in many areas of our lives. Very often one of those resolutions is to get control of our physical eating and FINALLY lose that 10, 20, whatever, pounds!! (Or at least some of it!) So, a focus on food and on nourishment very appropriate.

But here is the really good news declared in our scriptures! In this case, it's not a demand to eat less, i.e., a call for restriction, but an invitation to feasting! We are commanded to eat! And not only is this food a delight, but we may also have as much as we want! Halleluyah!

As a Messianic Jewish community, we have the opportunity to celebrate a new year several times during the year. One of the most significant of these is Simchat Torah, the scriptural new year, the day we restart the yearly cycle of Torah Portions.

This year that celebration fell on October 7. That meant that in Israel, and in Jewish communities around the world, a day intended for rejoicing was suddenly overshadowed with the shock of horror and death. On this day, Torah scrolls were rewound, and we began once more to immerse ourselves "In the beginning," as we do each year. But, because of the events of that day, it seemed that we were entering not only a new year, but in some ways, into - dare we say - a new era of world history.

Since that day, the dividing line between good and evil, light and darkness, has been very painfully and clearly drawn! The fact is, whether we live in Israel or here, we are at war; we are called to battle. And whether we feel like we're up to it or not, we were born for such a time as this. This brings us back to our opening Scriptures and the Torah. More than ever, we need to be fed and strengthened by the Word of God!

You've heard, no doubt, the saying that "An army marches on its stomach." Literally, this means that somehow they need to be provided a consistent supply of food. The same is true for us! We too are soldiers in this war and we must get our daily supply of food. Also, our soldiers find strength in each other.

They build strong bonds of trust in their fellow warriors, confident that each of them can be relied on to be true to their training and brave under fire. In the same way, we are also strengthened by being in a community of fellow believers supporting and encouraging each other in our daily battles. One of the ways Beth Messiah encourages that strength in unity is through our chavurot, groups that meet regularly to love, support and encourage each other.

Many of us are members of a chavurah and I am so blessed to be part of a wonderful women's chavurah. Normally as we began a new season, we would choose a book to study together. This year, the book we chose was the Torah itself. We decided to study the parasha each week using a very simple method one of our ladies had run across. Using this method, we study individually, then meet together to share the insights the Lord gave us.

Coincidentally, we prepared to implement this method at Simchat Torah so we could also begin our study "at the beginning." Considering the cataclysmic events of that day, it didn't take long for it to seem somehow foreordained. We were beginning this way of studying God's Word: chewing on it, digesting it, getting it into our minds and hearts, trusting it would strengthen our souls and spirits - and that was just exactly what we needed! The fact that we needed to be strong and prepared for battle became a painfully glaring necessity! And feasting on God's Word we knew was exactly what we needed to be strong enough "for such a time as this"!

So, once a week we would choose a chapter or a small section out of the weekly Torah portion, one that we wanted to "sink our teeth into," so to speak. We would use that portion for our in-depth study, using these simple steps to help us eat the scroll;

1. Pray - Always pray before beginning. We might begin with Ps. 119:18. "Open my eyes so I may behold wonders from Your Torah" (TLV)
2. Create a Title - After reading it, write down a title for the Portion or Chapter. This seemingly simple step can actually be a way to fine tune our understanding of the key message.
3. Summarize - Write down a summary of what you read. Record some or all of the following:
  - What truths did you find in the reading?
  - Are there any Word studies you may have to do?
  - What has the L-rd spoken to you through this portion?
4. Pray Again - Write out a prayer asking the Lord to change you, to work in you, and impact your life by a personal application of the truths you found in that passage.

Ask the RABBI

Rabbi?

Why is it common for Messianic Jews to use the terms: BCE ("Before Common Era") or CE ("Common Era") instead of B.C. (Before Christ) or A.D. (Anno Domini, in the year of our L-rd) if the latter points to the birth of Messiah?

Answer:

It has to do with sensitivity to our Jewish friends as we share Yeshua with them in Messianic terms. B.C. and A.D. are terms derived from the early church and the Latin influence. BCE and CE are also the more commonly used terms in scholarship today for both faith-based and secular scholarship.

FOUR QUESTIONS WITH...

WELCOME CBM'S NEW ADMINISTRATOR

Noe Espinosa

GETTING TO KNOW YOU!

HERE ARE FOUR THINGS
YOU PROBABLY DIDN'T KNOW

HOW LONG HAVE YOU BEEN ATTENDING CBM?

[My family and I] began visiting CBM in 2014 and became members in 2016.

WHAT HOBBIES DO YOU ENJOY?

Hiking, cooking, history, hosting friends and family, cracking jokes, collecting vinyl Jazz records but most notably the blessing of playing bass guitar for the CBM Praise and Worship team.

DO YOU HAVE A VISION FOR CBM AND YOUR ROLE AS ADMINISTRATOR?

Adonai has already well established the vision for CBM and continues to put every step well into order. My job is that of a servant being sensitive and responsive to the L-rd's ongoing direction. It is with equal heart to serve leadership and all those within our CBM family. There is much to learn and prioritize but trusting we will do great things as a community as we lean on the L-rd's never ceasing love and wisdom.

IF YOU CAN ONLY HAVE ONE CANDY FLAVOR FOR THE REST OF YOUR LIFE, WHAT WOULD IT BE?

If I only had one candy flavor for the rest of my life it would NOT be Banana flavor because everyone knows that would be nasty. Instead, it would have to be New York cheese and basil pizza if only they existed as a candy.
