INTERNATIONAL BIBLE STUDY

Thursdays at 1:00 PM | Mary & Martha Room

Leaders: Peter Harris

Everybody who typically attends this class is an immigrant or visitor to the United States - including the class leader Peter, however anybody is welcome. The aim of this Bible class has been, and will remain, manifold. Together we use the Bible to: a) expand knowledge of the English language, b) cover the history of Israel, how this lead to Christianity, and how Christianity became the foundation of Western civilization, especially in the United States, c) how the Bible shows that women are as equally important as men (this is very important to those who come from other religious and cultural backgrounds which are often male dominated), d) to show that the Bible is as meaningful today as it always has been, and e) above all, the goal is to encourage all to trust God and to take joy from the Word. For more information, please contact Peter at (248) 651-7532 or harris1964@wowway.com.

WOMEN

WOMEN OF PRAYER

Tuesday's at 8:45 AM | Chapel

Leaders: Beth Helmer, Deana Stevens

On Tuesday mornings, starting September 2, we invite all women of faith to attend this gathering of faithful believers. We will begin with a Psalm or another Scripture to meditate on and pray through as we pray together for the Lord's blessing, healing, and direction in a number of different areas (family, church, government, etc). Focus on the Word of God will often lead to deeper discussion, which we will welcome, but this group is intended to be intentionally prayerful, for there is mighty power in prayer! If you would like more information, please contact Deana at dstevens@stjohnrochester.org.

WHEN YOU PRAY - TUESDAY WOMEN'S STUDY

Tuesdays at 7:00 PM | Church Library

Leaders: Sue Stingu Moore

Praying can be a struggle for us. Do you have trouble thinking of the "correct" words to say? Or perhaps you reach the end of the day without praying at all? Beginning September 2, all women are welcome to join with us as we dive into this 7 session Bible study, led by 6 biblical teachers, who will inspire us to dive deeper into a more fruitful prayer life. Please note at sign-up if you wish to purchase the $25 workbook (needed for this study) on the first night of class. For more information and to sign up, please contact Sue at suestingu@icloud.com or text (248) 321-0572.

LADIES WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY - WITHOUT WAVERING

Wednesdays at 1:00 PM | Youth Room

Leaders: Jennie Eller

Beginning September 10, we will be diving more intentionally into our faith journey. Enduring, resilient, courageous—these are the qualities that we want to describe our faith in God. But the truth is that faith is hard, especially when trials, setbacks, and failures seem to define us. How do we trust God day in and day out? When the odds are stacked against us? In the moments when we're left wondering how we'll ever get back up? In this study, with videos, we will be using Alexandra Hoover's book, who offers encouraging words of hope and key examples of faith from the Scriptures, particularly Hebrews 11. Through hope in Christ, and by the power of the Holy Spirit, we are women who weather the storms of life with renewed strength and confidence in who God is, and who He says we are! Join us on Wednesday's at 1:00 PM. For more details, and books, you can contact Jennie at jeller@stjohnrochester.org.

Leaders: Dan McCallum

This men's group is taking a look at the Old Testament by reading and discussing Chad Bird's book, The Christ Key. What Christians today call the Old Testament is what Jesus and the earliest believers simply called the Scriptures. That was their Bible. From its pages, they taught about the Messiah's divine nature, his priestly work, and his ministry of salvation. By reading through this book together, we are reintroduced to these old books as ever-fresh, ever-new testimonies of Jesus. By the end, you will be encouraged as you look for Jesus on every page of the Old Testament. Join us on the first and third! For more information please contact Dan at d.mccallum@sbcglobal.net.
