

TODAY: JESUS

March 29, 2020

The One Who Calms Our Storms

Read: Psalm 18:2, Numbers 6:24-26, John 14:27

Has there ever been a time when you knew that God would not desert you, but the situation you were facing seemed overwhelming? What ended up happening?

Has there ever been a time when you just had to release control and let God work in a situation? How did you feel?

TODAY: JESUS

March 29, 2020

The One Who Calms Our Storms

Read: Psalm 18:2, Numbers 6:24-26, John 14:27

Has there ever been a time when you knew that God would not desert you, but the situation you were facing seemed overwhelming? What ended up happening?

Has there ever been a time when you just had to release control and let God work in a situation? How did you feel?

What storms are in your life that you need to let God have total control over?

Closing: At some point in our life, every single one of us will go through a storm or a hard time. It is guaranteed. However, with each storm we must answer this question...will we live by faith or fear? God is still a God who calms storms. He will calm the storms in your life, but you must choose to trust Him. Will you?

“Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with all of you.”

-1 Thessalonians 3:16

What storms are in your life that you need to let God have total control over?

Closing: At some point in our life, every single one of us will go through a storm or a hard time. It is guaranteed. However, with each storm we must answer this question...will we live by faith or fear? God is still a God who calms storms. He will calm the storms in your life, but you must choose to trust Him. Will you?

“Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with all of you.”

-1 Thessalonians 3:16