LESSON #6

TEN QUALIFICATIONS OF A DISCIPLE-MAKER

NEXT WEEK'S SCRIPTURE

MARK 1:35; 2 CORINTHIANS 5:14-15; 1 THESSALONIANS 2:8

THE LESSON AT A GLANCE

This week, we will examine the qualifications of a disciple maker. The Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20) is a command for all believers to make disciples as they go throughout the world. We can be disciple makers in our homes, schools, and churches as we grow in our relationship with Christ and encourage others to grow in Him as well.

While the list from today's lesson is certainly not exhaustive, we will look at ten qualities that define a disciple maker.

Let today's lesson be an encouragement to continue to grow in your walk with Christ and in service to others.

THE MAIN IDEA

Believers are all called to be disciple makers in our homes, workplaces, and churches. As we grow in our walk with God and our relationships with others, we gain opportunities to encourage and support others in their relationship with Christ.

QUESTIONS TO EXPLORE

What qualities of a disciple maker are present in my life today, and what is lacking? How can I ask God to help me grow in those ways?
