APPLY

Where do you need to apply John's words, "He must become greater, I must become less"? Is there an area in your life where God is calling you to take the focus off yourself and onto Jesus? How will you respond?

READING PLAN

- Monday- John 1:19-23
- Tuesday- John 1:24-28
- Wednesday- John 1:29
- Thursday- John 1:30-31
- Friday- John 1:32-34

John's message in these verses could be summed up as, "Not me, but Him." Think about the one thing that dominates most of your thoughts currently: a difficult relationship, a conversation you're replaying over in your mind, a big upcoming decision. What would "not me, but Him" look like in this area of your life and what practical next step would this require of you?

LESSON #3

THE FIRST DISCIPLES OF JESUS

NEXT WEEK'S SCRIPTURE

JOHN 1:35-51

THE LESSON AT A GLANCE

This week, we will look at Jesus's disciples and their first introduction to Him. The invitation to "come and see" originated from Jesus to Andrew and another disciple and then extended outward as they invited others to "come and see" Jesus.

God uses all kinds of people to fulfill His mission. Our unique personalities, talents, and relationships can all be means through which God uses individuals to reach others for Christ. Take note of the different relationships and personalities in this account and how each person was a part of Jesus's mission.

Every believer has a part to play in making Jesus known. We never know how God will use our lives to reach others.

THE MAIN IDEA

When we respond to Christ's invitation, He not only draws us into a relationship with Himself but also works through our unique relationships and personalities to invite others, equipping us to play a distinct role in His mission.

QUESTIONS TO EXPLORE

How has God uniquely made me, and how can that be used in sharing the good news of Jesus?
