How might you embrace John the Baptist's humility in the way you relate to Christ and others?

READING PLAN

- Monday- John 3:22-24
- Tuesday- John 3:25-26
- Wednesday- John 3:27-29
- Thursday- John 3:30
- Friday- John 3:31-36

Our western world is saturated with opportunities to compete and compare, no differently than for the disciples in John 3. Reflect on John's push back on pride in v.27-30.

What might be Christ's standard for greatness in this season of your life? In other words, what does faithful obedience look like today? How does that look differently than what the world would deem great for you?

LESSON #8

THE SAMARITAN WOMAN AT THE WELL & HER TESTIMONY

NEXT WEEK'S SCRIPTURE

JOHN 4:1-42

THE LESSON AT A GLANCE

This week's lesson is all about water—physical and spiritual. As Jesus began His public ministry, He made a surprising stop along the way. Samaria was a region the Jews generally avoided. The bad blood between the Jewish people and their distant relatives, the Samaritans, brimmed with disdain and disrespect. Christ's love penetrates ethnocentrism, however, and today's passage reminds us the gospel has the power to transform lives and communities.

As you spend time in this week's lesson, look for ways you can relate to the Samaritan woman, and think about how Christ's truth impacts the way you view yourself and the world. Examine ways you can be on a restored mission to share the good news with others and invite them to experience living water in Christ.

THE MAIN IDEA

Like the Samaritan woman at the well, Jesus calls each of us to a restored relationship with God, restored relationships with others, and a restored relationship with the world.

QUESTIONS TO EXPLORE

How does your relationship with Jesus impact the way you see the world around you? How might God use your unique story to make a difference in His kingdom?
