

An update from Matt Rachar:

I am praising God for answered prayers, guidance and wisdom. The fundraising process has been clearly driven by God Himself, as He has even been bringing people to me, confirming that I am working for YFC now, and then asking how to give. I haven't needed to ask anyone, except God, for several weeks, and He continues to bring in support for this ministry. Alongside of this, we are beginning to ramp up for Fall programming and what this will look like beginning in October. I have already begun establishing a culture of prayer and God has been guiding me with His wisdom in how to care for my fellow coworkers and volunteers.

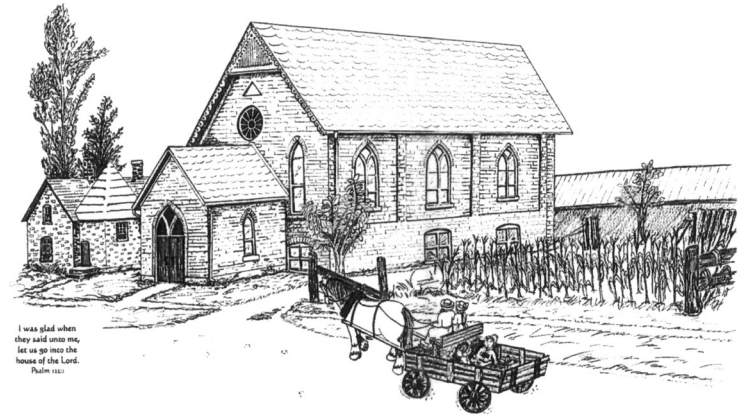

Our God is so faithful, and listens to our prayers! These past couple of months are a huge testament to this, along with clear confirmation of His hand directing this move for me into ministry with Lakefield Youth Unlimited.

Thank you to all of you for your love, care and support, but most of all, thank you for your obedience to our Awesome God as He has called you to pray and support financially! The body of Christ is a beautiful thing, and I am so thankful for you all!!
