

Small Group Leader Expectations:

Because we desire the character of Christ to be reflected in the leadership of His church, Central Baptist Church holds her leaders to a high standard of accountability. Small Group Leaders are leaders and teachers in the church who honor Christ as they multiply ministry to the body. The following are qualifications and expectations of small group leaders.

Please examine your life as it compares with these. Also, consider the following if you want to recommend someone as a small group leader.

- Living an honorable life, worthy of respect by others in the church.
- Living above reproach by reflecting the character of Christ.
- Models spiritual disciplines of prayer, personal Bible study, and financial giving
- Model a Christian home life.
- Speaks well of Central Baptist and her ministries in the small group and community.
- Participates in regular corporate worship services at Central.
- Prepares for small group meetings and conducts a quality meeting.
- Attends leader meetings conducted by church staff or his liaison.

