Daily Readings

Throughout Lent, our studies have focused on giving up trust in our own strength and taking hold of God's strength. For part of this week, let's remind ourselves of the ways Scripture can guide us. Read each statement, the Scripture provided, then write insights that help you take up God's strength.

Monday– Trust God and His victory, embodied in Jesus. Stand still in victory as His beloved child. Give God praise for the victory. (John 16:33, Romans 8:35-39, 1 Corinthians 15:57)

Tuesday – Focus on the Word of God. Wait on the Lord. Watch for the Lord. (Psalm 130:5-6, Micah 7:7, Romans 12:2)

Wednesday – Walk in love. Use your gifts and skills to serve others. (1 Corinthians 12:4-6, Ephesians 4:32, Philippians 2:4, 1 Peter 4:10)

Thursday – Read Mark 11:1-11. What does Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem teach us about His view of kingship and authority? (Mark 9:30-37, Matthew 20:25-28)

Friday – Read Psalm 118. Part of this Psalm (verse 26a) was shouted by the crowd as Jesus entered Jerusalem. What stands out to you in this account of Christ's arrival? Describe the mood of this event.
