Read Matthew 11:28-30 Together

In chapter 11, Jesus tells the crowds that his yoke is easy and his burden is light, contrasting himself with the other religious leaders of his time. Jesus invites the burdened, the tired, and the weary into the rest that only he can provide.

Discussion Questions

1. How do the words of Jesus in this passage compare to the beatitudes and Jesus' words of invitation to those he spoke of in that passage?
2. How does the yoke of Jesus compare to other yokes in your life?
3. Have you found that the yoke of Jesus brings you rest? If so, how? If not, why do you think that is?
