Read Matthew 20:1-16 Together

Jesus tells a parable in to begin chapter 20 of Matthew's gospel--sandwiched between two relevant stories. Matthew--and Jesus--want us to realize that the power dynamics of the Kingdom are radically different than those of the world.

Discussion Questions

1. In what ways do we often let seniority and power get in the way of existing as the unified community of God?
2. Have you ever felt like you didn't deserve God's love as much as others?
3. Have you ever felt like you deserved God's love more than others?
