Read Matthew 28:16-20 Together

After Jesus' resurrection, he meets his disciples on a mountain before giving them what has become known as the "great commission": to go and make disciples of all nations. How does this simple call confront what we have emphasized in our modern churches and what it means to be a disciple?

Discussion Questions

1. What does it look like to make disciples, or help someone be a disciple of Christ?
2. What do you think Jesus meant when He said he is with His disciples always to the end of the age?
3. How does Jesus' authority affect the Church's ability to baptize and make disciples of all nations?
