At the end of chapter 2 of 1 John, John warns his readers about the “antichrists” that have already appeared in the world; John defines these antichrists not how we might expect, but as those who deny that Jesus is the Christ. John implores his readers to stay firm in the Jesus that they have been presented and come to know.

Read 1 John 2:18-28 together.

1. Why do you think that the teaching that Jesus wasn't incarnated was so tempting for early Christians?
2. What does it mean to abide in the Son and in the Father?
3. What does it mean to have confidence in what we have been taught? How has the indwelling of the Spirit given you comfort in your understanding of Jesus?
