

MEALS WITH GOD

The Lord's Supper is the central moment of our gathering each Sunday--the moment when we remember and replicate the last meal of Jesus' life before his death. What messages can we take away from this story that we may have missed--and what does it mean to practice the Lord's Supper as a community?

READ LUKE 22:14-21 TOGETHER.

1. What is your most memorable/favorite family tradition that is done during an important meal?
2. Why do you think Jesus chose bread and wine as the symbols of His body and blood?
3. Do you envision Christ hosting our Lord's Supper meals? If not, how might that change the dynamic of communion?
4. What is the new covenant, and how does this meal remind us that we are living in it?
