

The Goodness of Worship
Psalm 92:1-4

1. It is good to give _____ to the LORD. (v. 1a)
2. It is good to _____ praises to His Name.
(v. 1b)
3. It is good to _____ declare the LORD's praise. (v. 2)
4. It is good to adorn our praise with _____. (v. 3)
5. It is good to rejoice in the _____ of the LORD. (v. 4)

Discussion Questions for Psalm 92:1-4

1. How does the biblical concept of God's "hesed" (steadfast love) deepen our motivation for worship?
2. How is singing in corporate worship different from private thanksgiving? Why is it important?
3. What does it look like practically to declare God's steadfast love in the morning and His faithfulness at night? How can your morning and evening routines become rhythms of worship?
4. How does remembering both God's work in creation and in redemption fuel joy-filled worship?
5. What is one practical way you can grow in joyful, expressive worship—either privately or corporately?