

Everything You Need
Colossians 2:1-5
October 12, 2025

BIG IDEA

Paul encourages the Colossians to stay united in love and rooted in Christ. False teachers were trying to lead them astray with persuasive lies, but Paul reminds them that all wisdom and knowledge are found in Jesus alone. By living in unity and depending on Christ, believers can stand firm in their faith and resist deception. Today, we are called to hold tightly to Christ, encourage one another, and rest in the truth that Jesus is everything we need.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE

Colossians 2:1-5 (ESV)

"For I want you to know how great a struggle I have for you and for those at Laodicea and for all who have not seen me face to face, that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, to reach all the riches of full assurance of understanding and the knowledge of God's mystery, which is Christ, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. I say this in order that no one may delude you with plausible arguments. For though I am absent in body, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order and the firmness of your faith in Christ."

MAIN THEME

Paul deeply cares for the believers in Colossae and Laodicea, even though he has never met them in person. He longs for them to be encouraged and united in love so they can fully grasp the truth of who Christ is. All wisdom and knowledge are found in Jesus, not in human philosophies or spiritual counterfeits. Paul warns against persuasive lies that can easily deceive, urging believers to stay rooted in Christ. Unity, spiritual growth, and discernment are essential for standing firm in faith and resisting false teaching.
