

Mapping Daniel

"The most high God is sovereign over all the kingdoms of earth." Daniel 5:21

Chapter 1: Introduction

Introduction of Daniel and his friends as godly men in a secular world.

Chapter 2-6: Five Stories

Five stories all ending with the same fact: The God of Scripture rules over the empires of earth.

Ch 2: Nebuchadnezzar's Dream
Ch 3: Nebuchadnezzar's Image
Ch 4: Nebuchadnezzar's Insanity
Ch 5: Belshazzar's Banquet
Ch 6: Cyrus' Decree and the Lions' Den

Chapter 7-12: Four Visions

Four extended apocalyptic visions revealing the immediate and ultimate course of history.

Ch 7: The Four Beasts
Ch 8: The Ram and the Goat
Ch 9: The Seventy Weeks
Ch 10-12: The Great War

Copyright Robert J. Morgan

Mapping Daniel

"The most high God is sovereign over all the kingdoms of earth." Daniel 5:21

Chapter 1: Introduction

Introduction of Daniel and his friends as godly men in a secular world.

Chapter 2-6: Five Stories

Five stories all ending with the same fact: The God of Scripture rules over the empires of earth.

Ch 2: Nebuchadnezzar's Dream
Ch 3: Nebuchadnezzar's Image
Ch 4: Nebuchadnezzar's Insanity
Ch 5: Belshazzar's Banquet
Ch 6: Cyrus' Decree and the Lions' Den

Chapter 7-12: Four Visions

Four extended apocalyptic visions revealing the immediate and ultimate course of history.

Ch 7: The Four Beasts
Ch 8: The Ram and the Goat
Ch 9: The Seventy Weeks
Ch 10-12: The Great War

Copyright Robert J. Morgan

Mapping Daniel

Daniel was a Jewish statesman who occupied roles of power in the Babylonian and Persian Empires for over seventy years (605 BC - 536 BC). His life and writings demonstrate God's total jurisdiction over earth's pagan history and future, even when it appears the divine plan and people have failed.

The whole book is summed up in two words in Daniel 4:26: "Heaven rules." The form and features of Daniel, which serve as a backdrop to the book of Revelation, are full of encouragement for believers seeking to live godly lives in a secular society.

Copyright Robert J. Morgan

Mapping Daniel

Daniel was a Jewish statesman who occupied roles of power in the Babylonian and Persian Empires for over seventy years (605 BC - 536 BC). His life and writings demonstrate God's total jurisdiction over earth's pagan history and future, even when it appears the divine plan and people have failed.

The whole book is summed up in two words in Daniel 4:26: "Heaven rules." The form and features of Daniel, which serve as a backdrop to the book of Revelation, are full of encouragement for believers seeking to live godly lives in a secular society.

"The most high God is sovereign over all the kingdoms of earth." Daniel 5:21

Copyright Robert J. Morgan