Welcome • Bienvenidos

Welcome to Sacred Heart Church, where we embrace each other as family, just as Jesus taught us to love one another and share each other's burdens. We strive each day to grow a little kinder, a little better, guided by the light of our faith. We are thrilled to extend our warmest greetings to you as you join our community. We make it our mission to make you feel at home, starting with reserving a seat for you among us. We invite you to explore our website or stop by the church office to learn more about how you can become an integral part of our parish family. We look forward to getting to know you and journeying together in faith. Remember Sacred Heart in your will!

Bienvenidos a la Iglesia del Sagrado Corazón, donde nos abrazamos como familia, así como Jesús nos enseñó a amarnos los unos a los otros y compartir las cargas de los demás. Aquí nos esforzamos cada día por ser un poco más amables, un poco mejores, guiados por la luz de nuestra fe. Estamos encantados de extenderle nuestros más cordiales saludos al unirse a nuestra comunidad. Nuestra misión es hacerle sentirse como en casa, empezando por reservar un asiento entre nosotros. Lo invitamos a explorar nuestra pagina web o pasar por la oficina de la iglesia para obtener más información sobre cómo puede convertirse en una parte integral de nuestra familia parroquial. Esperamos conocerle y caminar juntos en la fe. ¡Recuerda el Sagrado Corazón en tu testamento!

Pray for More Priests! • ¡Oren Por Más Sacerdotes!

Our beloved Archdiocese is in a crisis. We have a shortage of priests to lead God's people, hear their confessions and provide absolution, give comfort to the sick and dying, and celebrate the liturgy of the Mass. Please, pray for more priests and pray for the ones that God has blessed us with!

Nuestra querida Arquidiócesis está en crisis. Tenemos escasez de sacerdotes para guiar al pueblo de Dios, escuchar sus confesiones y dar la absolución, dar consuelo a los enfermos y moribundos, y celebrar la liturgia de la Misa. Solemnity of Pentecost Receive the Holy Spirit

The Solemnity of Pentecost brings the Easter season to its beautiful conclusion.

Yet Pentecost is not simply the memory of a dramatic event long ago; it is the living, ongoing work of God. The Church does not exist by its own strength or cleverness, but by the very breath of God: a breath that creates, heals, forgives, and sends us forth.

To understand Pentecost more deeply, we need to begin with its roots. Pentecost did not begin as a Christian feast. It was, and still is, a Jewish celebration known as Shavuot, meaning “weeks.” It is called this because it is celebrated seven weeks after Passover. Greek-speaking Jews referred to it as Pentecost, meaning “the fiftieth day.”

The Jewish calendar itself follows a rhythm different from our modern one. It is a lunisolar calendar, guided by the cycles of the moon and the agricultural seasons. The year is not divided into four seasons like ours, but rather by moments of growth and harvest, planting, ripening, gathering, and waiting. Life was understood through the land, and faith was expressed through these rhythms.

Pentecost originally marked the completion of the grain harvest. It began with the offering of the first barley (the omer) and ended weeks later with the offering of two loaves of wheat bread in the Temple. What started as a small handful of grain ended as bread for daily life, a powerful sign of God’s provision.

Over time, however, this feast took on a deeper meaning. The people of Israel came to associate these fifty days with their journey from slavery to freedom. Having been freed from Egypt at Passover, they arrived at Mount Sinai about fifty days later, where God gave them the Law. Thus, Pentecost became not only a celebration of harvest, but also a celebration of covenant, the moment when God formed His people and gave them a way to live.

By the time of Jesus, Pentecost was one of the great pilgrimage feasts. Jews from all over the known world traveled to Jerusalem. The Acts of the Apostles lists people from many lands, Parthians, Medes, Egyptians, Romans, and others, showing how widely God’s people had been scattered.

It is precisely at this moment, when people from every nation are gathered, that the Holy Spirit descends.

The signs are striking: a mighty wind, tongues of fire, and speech that is understood by all. The word used for Spirit is the same word that means “breath” or “wind.” This takes us all the way back to the beginning of the Bible, where the Spirit of God hovered over the waters at creation. At Pentecost, that same Spirit is poured out again, not to create the world, but to create a new humanity.

For this reason, Pentecost is often called the birthday of the Church.

There is another important connection. In the story of the Tower of Babel, humanity, filled with pride, tries to reach heaven by its own power. As a result, language is confused, and people are scattered. But at Pentecost, this is reversed. The Spirit does not erase differences, but allows people of different languages to understand one another. Unity is restored, not by human effort, but by God’s gift.

In the Gospel, we see a quieter but equally powerful moment. The risen Jesus breathes on His disciples and says, “Receive the Holy Spirit.” Just as God breathed life into Adam at creation, Jesus now breathes new life into His disciples. This new life is immediately linked to forgiveness. The Spirit heals what sin has broken. Where there was division, the Spirit restores communion.

Finally, Saint Paul helps us understand what this means for our lives. The Spirit gives different gifts to different people, but all for one purpose: to build up the Body of Christ. Diversity is not a problem; it is part of God’s design. We are many members, but one body, united by the same Spirit.

Pentecost, then, is not just an event of the past. It is a reality for us today. The same Spirit is at work in our lives, in our faith, in our community, and in our mission.

As we celebrate this great feast, let us open our hearts and pray: Come, Holy Spirit. Fill us with Your life, heal what is broken, and send us forth to be witnesses of Your love.
